THE ACORN

PUBLISHED BY THE
SENIOR CLASS
OF
JEFFERSON HIGH SCHOOL
ROANOKE, VIRGINIA

MAY, 1926

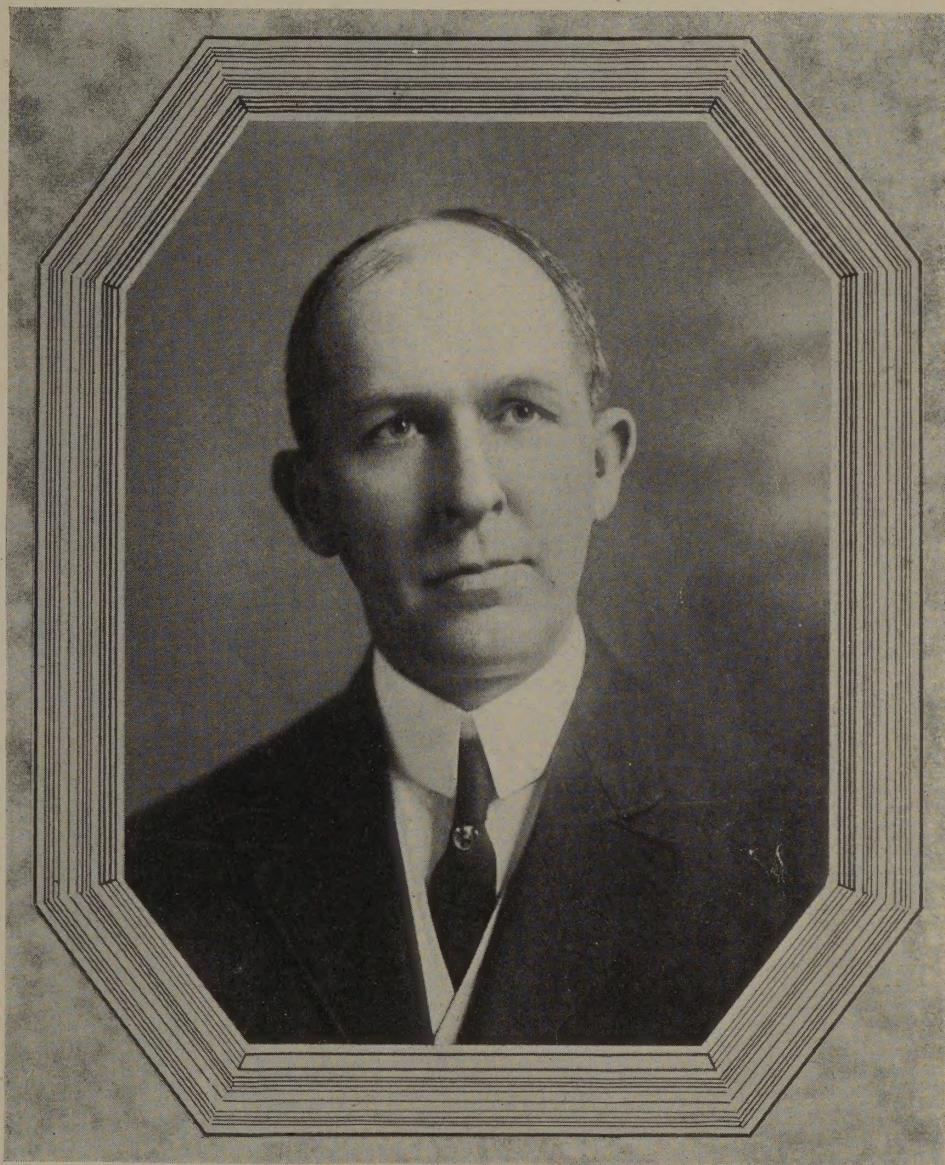

Dedication

IT stands as a lighthouse of true knowledge and learning, shedding rays of that knowledge upon all its inmates—a superstructure, our dear, new, two-year-old High School! We did not realize the full beauty and blessing of our dwelling last year, but living in it two years has brought to us a keener sense of appreciation. It has glorified for us our last two years of High School.

We've come to know what it means to have an adequate stage on which to overcome shyness. We've developed physical strength and morale in its beautiful gymnasium. We've enjoyed Math, Latin and English a little more because of sitting in comfortable, airy classrooms.

So, in appreciation of the foresight of him who recognized our needs—who advocated such an equipment as we have—who made the ideal of a beautiful dwelling possible, we do now dedicate this Final Issue of the 1926 ACORN to—

IN APPRECIATION

UPON the horizon of our life in Jefferson High stands one figure above all the rest. Forsooth, he has been our guide piloting us in all phases of our life as a Class—always kind—always gentle—standing for our rights and just in his decisions. Though we have worried him, oft thoughtlessly—he has been the students' friend first, last and always.

We do not feel that our Final Issue would be complete without an appreciation of our pilot. For, in after years, we shall remember him in all his loveliness of character. Who do we appreciate more than our—

MR. PARSONS

ALPHA AND OMEGA

STEP back now with me to the beginning of this, our final year. We lighted our dead torches at the altar of Knowledge and Inspiration and then, grasping firmly the key of Opportunity, unlocked the door leading to the fulfillment of these. Each painting, adorning the walls of the shining vista of the future, we have brought into life and reality—carrying fearlessly onward our torch. We have made those of the Honor System, clean athletics, clubs, and activities of all kinds, successful. All glow with life!

We have passed onward across the threshold of '26 and frankly took an inventory of ourselves, finding things really worth while, then, continuing our research—our follies—now we have come to the last scene, the most glorious of them all—the Senior adorned with the true emblem of his dignity, still holding aloft his torch.

Yes, we are that Senior! Look now, his hand is on the latch of a door we have not seen before. This is the door swinging outward into the world. Again, in our hands is placed a key—but one, now, of greater opportunity—that of Success in Life. This is the end of Hi School Life but only the beginning of real life. We must pass through the portal of this door out into the world, holding aloft our flaming torch. This is Alpha and Omega. Have you not the key?

CLASS OF '26

President	ROBERT LYBROOK
Vice President	FRANCES MASON
Treasurer	SARAH MAHANEY
Secretary	MILDRED SHAFER
Historian	ANGIE TURNER
Prophet	HENRY HEADEN
Poet	LESLIE FOWLER, JR.

FLORENCE GOLDSMITH ACH

Here's to Florence—one of the truest and most loyal friends in "Ole Hi." Her sweet disposition has won for her friends among both teachers and students. She will be a great success in anything she does. So, Class of '26 wishes her "Bon Voyage" on the Sea of Life.

CARRIE ANNE ADKINS

*"Not too sober, not too gay,
But a true, sweet friend in every way."*

Carrie always comes up smiling and is ever ready to help those in trouble. Her sweet ways and good nature have won her many friends. She expects to teach school. Joy and success to you, Carrie!

MARY FRANCES ALDHIZER

Basket Ball, '26; G. C.

Frances? Oh, yes, she's the tall Senior who plays on the basket ball team. She is studious as well as athletic and has many friends around Ole Hi. Frances has decided to become a "schoolmarm" and we wish her success.

MYRTLE MAY ALLEY

G. C.

"Bright and sunny and gay,
She's happy all the day."

Myrtle? An attractive, cute blonde. Though serious in school work and makes good grades, when it comes to the "Roanoke College Bunch," she's right there. She can sho' play the piano, too. She will surely make some man happy.

Don't you forget.

GRACE MAE ALISON

H. E. C.

Love Grace

Attractive disposition, a real good sport—that's Grace. She has been a cheerful worker among us. Once a friend, forever a friend. Her laugh causes much amusement, but may she never forget that it will always drive care away in the future as it has for us in the past.

HUBERT ROY ALMOND

Hi-Y; Football, '25

Hubert, in other words "Red," is one of the most likeable boys in his Class. He studies little but gets along somehow. He is a good sport and a true friend. He expects to follow the line of electricity and enter V. P. I. next fall. Here's to you, "Red."

JANIE ELIZABETH ANDERSON
M. W. L. S.

"I put all my worries down in my heart and sit on the lid and smile."

Janie is a fine all-round girl, taking an interest in all Hi activities. She is always in a good humor and this quality has won for her many friends. Best luck at W. & M.!

RUBY PAYNE ANDERSON
World Fellowship Committee; G. C.

Bright, sweet, attractive and always ready to lend a helping hand—that's Ruby. Ruby will enter college next year and you can just bet she will continue her good work. Best wishes from the Class of '26.

GAY SHELBURNE ARMISTEAD
Booster Club; G. C.; F. C.

*"Everybody loves Gay and we all know the reason,
'Cause Gay loves everybody in and out of season."*

VIRGINIA MADISON ARMISTEAD
Booster Club; G. C.; F. C.

Virginia has pep, you'll all agree,
Lots of originality.
She hates to walk,
She sho' can talk,
She has good looks,
But not at books.
She's some bluffer,
She's some stuffer,
And she leaves us full of pains,
For what we lose someone "Gaines."

DAVID McCARLY ARMSTRONG

S. P.

David is an all-round, practical sort of a fellow—good looking, sociable, athletic, jolly and scholarly. On the track team try to see his flying feet. We do not know David's plans for the future but we know wherever he is he will play his part well.

MAE ELIZABETH ARNOLD

S. C.

*"Happy am I, and free,
Why are not all contented like me?"*

Quiet and demure is Mae,
She is expecting to attend
Radford, but who can tell,
Since she is so fond of a certain kind of "Bun."
The Class of '26 wishes her
A bright and happy future.

WILLIE MILDRED ARTHUR

Always cheerful—never blue,
A little mischief-maker, too.
Things she does are all well done,
At home, at school, or just in fun.
We hope she'll always have success,
What could we wish her more or less?
Of course, you know of whom we speak,
It's "Willie!"

HUGH LINWOOD ATKINSON

"Lin"—that sweet and peppy Senior that everybody hears and sees around Hi. He is an excellent student, especially in Math. "Lin" hasn't decided which the lucky school will be next year, but best o' luck is the parting wish of the Class of '26 for it's "most talented boy."

JEAN ALLEN AUSTIN

*"If she will she will and you may depend on it.
If she won't she won't and that's the end of it."*

If you see a quiet, good-looking, blue-eyed Senior in the halls, that's Jean. She's going to college next fall and has the best wishes of '26.

STUART RUCKER AYERS

Stuart, the quietest, sincerest and most sympathetic boy in our Class, graduated at mid-term. He was noted in his classes for good-natured acceptance of responsibilities and his perseverance until the most seemingly insurmountable obstacles had been overcome. Stuart plans for consular service in foreign countries. He'll reach his goal.

LAVINIA CATHERINE BAILEY

Friendly, kind and loving is "Beania." She is always willing to help with whatever she is asked to do. She has gained the admiration of all by her sunny disposition. May her future be happy, whatever she does.

DOROTHY GORDON BALDWIN

Chairman Service Committee; G. C.; Vice President, Wischegu Club

One of Hi's sweetest and most attractive girls. She is full of pep and equally as studious. "Dot" has much personal charm which has made her extremely popular. Her heart seems to be in Salem now. Sadly her friends at Ole Hi see her leave.

ALICE BAHLDEEN BANDY

G. C.

You know her—everyone does! One of the sweetest and most attractive girls at Olé Hi—well, that's Bahldeen. Is she good looking? Just ask anybody at V. P. I.! She has won a host of friends both in school and out. Best of luck, Bahldeen—we lose what Hollins gains!

LINA ELIZABETH BARNETT

G. C.

Tall, dignified, attractive and always smiling. That's "Liz"—"Liz" has made just loads of friends both in and out of school. "Liz" claims to be a man-hater but she's always ready to go to Bedford. Best wishes from the Class of '26 go with her in all her undertakings.

MELVIN FRIEDLIN BARNETT

R. C.; Vice President J. L. S., '26; Treasurer J. L. S., '25; Declamation Representative, '25-'26; Public Speaking Representative, '25; Reading Representative, '26.

Come—let us pledge the health of Hi's great orator, Melvin! May the Goddess of Fortune continue to smile on him.

LENA GLADYS BEAMER

"A wee, bonnie lass like a sweet wild rose."

Lena is a shining example of the old proverb: "Precious articles come in small packages." She's an all-round good student. "Little Bits," popular, peppy, attractive, dainty and clever—that's Lena. So here's to her success and future happiness.

I hope your life will be the sweet song!

EVELYN BINGHAM

G. C.; M. W. L. S.

Curly hair and dimples! Sweet and smart! Evelyn personifies all the high school girl should. Always full of fun, yet she manages to make splendid grades and to endear herself to all. Her career is, as yet, uncertain but success always, Evelyn, from the Class of '26.

MARGARET KEHLER BITTERMAN

S. C.; Booster Club; G. C.; Coöperative Council, '25-'26; Social Committee, Senior Class, '26.

If you hear anyone talking about sweet people you know it's Margaret. But don't ever think she's not peppy and attractive. Margaret is one of these nature lovers—she is fond of strolling through the "Wood." She has made more friends at Ole Hi than mos' anybody.

LILLY BOSWELL

G. C.; F. C.; M. W. L. S.

The girl with those charming dark eyes and wonderful personality.—Lilly has won a host of friends at Hi. She's quite smart, too, in everything and sure is a good debater. Lilly has a great musical talent—especially for jazz. Did you ever hear her play? Best wishes for success at Hollins.

FANNIE IDA BOTSFORD

G. C.

Fannie—that friendly, charming, attractive little Senior. Just lots of ambition and ability and a real pal. She's a good all-round sport, just full o' pep and personality. Jefferson Hi wishes Fannie just the very best success at Hollins and in life!

GERALDINE GRAYBILL BOWMAN

Geraldine is one of the most interesting girls we know. She seems quiet enough on the surface, but still water runs deep and "Gerry" shò' has depth. She finds time to pass her grades and go in for all phases of sports. What more could one do? 'Nuf sed!

VICTOR MILLER BRUGH

Track, '25

"Vic," that snappy Senior who is HEARD and seen around Hi. He always has a good time, though sometimes at the expense of his teachers. "Vic" is "extra fine" in Mechanical Drawing. He left us at Christmas and has turned out to be a draftsman. Happy-go-lucky, our luck boy.

FRANCES ELIZA BRUMBAUGH

G. C.; F. C.; Coöperative Council

Jolly, attractive, good looking, too,
A friend who is true blue, through and through.
One who always gets more good grades,
A shining light is this sweet maid.
A ripping success she will be at college
Where she will add to her store of knowledge.
To Frances we may say,
Class of '26's best wishes in every way.

MADELENE TRENT BURCH

W. C., '24, '25; G. C., '26

A magnetic personality—it is a gift; not many possess it; all who have it should cherish it—and Madelene is one of these fortunate few! She is very pretty, a good student—it seems too much, but it is all true. Purdue—the school that will be more than fortunate.

VIRGINIA KATHRYN CAMPBELL

*"A good old pal in every way;
One not found every day."*

"Ginny" is one of the most attractive girls in the Class of '26. Her ready smile has won for her many friends. We are sure that she will be successful in anything she undertakes. Here's hoping so!

HENRY LEE CANNADAY

Secretary Spanish Club, '26

Henry is a good-natured and handsome boy who is very bright in his studies. Although he is short in stature he is the best left-hand pitcher of '26. Henry is going to Roanoke College next fall where he will succeed as before. We know it.

SARAH ELIZABETH CANNADAY

Sarah—one of the most capable and intelligent members of the Class of '26. She has a smile for everyone and is loved by all. Through her attractive personality she has won many friends. Here's wishing her much success at college next year.

GLADYS CARDER

Gladys is attractive, never worries, but is jolly and always full of fun. She is a friend not found every day. Never fails to make grand grades. We, the Class of '26, wish her great success in the business world.

CATHERINE ELIZABETH CARRINGTON

Alfred Carrington
Catherine is a very attractive, unassuming little girl who is well known for her sweet disposition. Although small, she is not lacking in ability. Catherine is expecting to attend Farmville and be an (old maid?) school teacher. May luck follow you, dear little friend.

ANNIE BEULAH CARTER

Annie has a place in the hearts of all. Having made one of the finest records in our Class, she is highly esteemed by her many friends and is the teacher's stand-by in her classes. It will be hard to fill her place. Here's luck to you at Farmville, Annie!

BUELAH LOUISE CARTER

A contradiction to the adage "beautiful, but dumb" Beulah is both good looking and smart. She leaves behind her a record of good grades and popularity. She hasn't decided her future education but Ole Hi envies the school of her choice.

Robert
JANE KATHERINE CARTER

Coöperative Council, '24, '25, '26; Martha Washington Literary Society, Recording Secretary, '24, Corresponding Secretary, '25, Vice President '25, Chairman Program Committee '25, Chairman Credit Committee '26; World Fellowship Committee, G. C., '25, '26.

Small, sweet, attractive and always smiling. Jane's record speaks for itself. Best wishes from the Class of '26 go with her to college.

LOUISE LEE CARTER

G. C.; M. W. L. S.

*Five foot, two, eyes of brown,
Oh boy, what those eyes can do!*

Louise is a bouncing ball of health and good looks, bubbling over with pep and good humor. She is quite a heart-breaker and is liked by everyone. Good luck, Louise!

MARIE EILEEN CASEY

G. C.; F. C.

Marie is one of our smartest and most attractive Seniors. She is a person to be relied on, is a good sport and has plenty of pep. Harrisonburg is the school where she will continue her work. We know that she will be popular there.

ADALEE CHAMBERLAYNE

Adalee goes along with that "I can't be bothered" air, and yet, to those who know her, she is the best little pal in the world. She has not taken much part in the school activities although she is just as interested as the rest of her Class.

ALVA BENTLEY CHAMBERLAYNE

Reporter, Junior World-News, '24-'25
Assistant Editor, Junior World-News, '25-'26

Alva is the "Sweetest Boy" of the Senior Class. He is noted for his willingness to lend a helping hand and we know that at Roanoke College next year he will win numerous friends. '26 is betting on you, Alva.

CONSTANCE EVANGALE CHESNEY

Glee Club; M. W. L. S.

Constance, better known to her friends as "Connie," is one of the few who live up to that proverbial phrase, "A Dignified Senior." Nevertheless, she is full of fun and pep, always ready for a good time. "Connie" will attend Randolph-Macon next year. J. H. S.'s loss is R.-M. W. C.'s gain.

ELSIE VIRGINIA CHILDRESS

G. C.; H. E. C.

Black eyes, pretty dimples. We have all kinds and types in our Class and it would be incomplete without this pretty, winsome brunette who has won a place in our hearts. Never seems to worry, but is bound to succeed.

PHYLLIS EVELYN CHILDRESS

Booster Club; G. C.; F. C.; A. C.

They say the best of friends must part,
But, "Phyl," we haven't got the heart,
To bid the last farewell to you,
A friend who's been so good and true.
Your winning ways have been a treat
That's made our "Hi" school life complete.
Good luck, dear pal!

ELIZABETH CIRCLE

G. C.; M. W. L. S.; F. C.

"Where there's a will there's a way."

Elizabeth has the will, all right, and she always finds the way. She is one of our most capable Seniors, both in class work and athletics. She lives up to her name, "Circle," as she is an "all-round" girl. May success be hers!

CHRISTINE ELIZABETH CLEMENT

Pretty, jolly, attractive, sweet,
And as a pal she can't be beat,
As a friend she's mighty true
And never seems to be blue.
A "stenog," she says, someday she'll be,
She'll be successful, as we shall see.
She's one that "Hi" hates to lose,
So, "Crip," here's to you!

ESTIE LEE CHLORE

Good natured and jolly, that's Estie Lee all over. Estie Lee does not worry herself studying, but anyway, she makes good grades, especially in History. She is going to Salem College at Winston-Salem and we know she will make a success as a school teacher. Here's luck!

THOMAS GUY COLLINGS

Orchestra

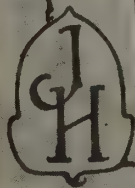

Guy is one of the hardest workers in this Class—on Spanish. But he never neglects his other studies, for he always pulls down good grades. He is a good friend to all. Next year Guy intends to go to V. P. I. for a course in Mechanical Engineering. We're wishing him good luck throughout his life.

FRANK SCOTT COOPER, JR.

Hi-Y; Coöperative Council; J. L. S.;
Roanoke Roman Staff

Frank is certainly well known around old Hi. All like him because of his bright smile and cheery word for everyone. Good grades? Yes. He intends to go to Virginia next year. We wish him good luck throughout his life.

Frank's a. Cooper Jr.

ELMIRA MARY COX

Glee Club; H. E. C.; M. W. L. S.

Attractive, sweet and the best pal ever; that's Elmira. Besides this, she sure makes good grades. We don't know what she will do next year but we think she will study music 'cause she sho' can "tickle them ivories." Best o' luck, musician!

SADIE ELIZABETH CREWS

Sadie, the dignified Senior of all Seniors, the sarcastic, good-looking blonde of the Commercial Department. Sadie is an excellent English student and we find her reciting "Carlyle" just any old time. Best of luck, my friend, and may "Carlyle" always be your favorite.

JANIE LOU CRUMPECKER

Glee Club

Janie certainly is one of the mocking birds of '26. She is full of pep and is a lively friend. It must be said that, although she studies little, she certainly gets grades. Many students at Ole Hi claim her as a true pal. Best o' luck, Janie Lou.

BLANCHE SLICER CURTIS

G. C.; F. C.; Secretary F. C. '26; Junior Executive Committee '25.

Is she the one with curly golden hair and charming personality? U bet! And that isn't half. She's got good looks and ability through which she has won heaps o' friends. Texas U. and the "cowboys" will claim her this fall—Hi wishes her great success!

RICHARD CHURCHILL DALBY

Dick is a tall, good-looking Senior, and does he make good grades? We'll say he does! He is a good pal and true friend. These characteristics, linked with his ambition to be Dr. Dalby, make knowing him well worth while. Roanoke College claims him next. Here's wishing you the very best, Dick.

MARTIN LESTER DALTON

Lester came to us just two years ago from West Virginia. He has been an asset to Hi school with his good-natured word and smile for everyone. We are expecting great things from you after you attend V. P. I. and Richmond Medical College. Ole boy, don't disappoint us!

FRANK ASHBY DAMEWOOD

Who is this happy-go-lucky individual with the smiling face that has become so familiar at Hi? It is no other than Frank, exponent of a good nature and a pleasing personality. He has a host of friends among the student body and faculty.

HAL DAVIS

Hal is a quiet, dignified Senior, but you can tell by the twinkle in his eye that he has a highly developed sense of humor. So he is not so dignified, after all. He intends to follow the medical profession and with his personality we are sure he will succeed.

VIRGINIA STOVALL DAVIS

Treasurer, S. C., '25

One of our most dignified little blondes is Virginia. How could one resist her flashing smile that is so infectious? Always in a good humor, Virginia has made many friends in Ole Hi. Her frankness, sincerity and admirable character have won for her a warm place in our hearts.

WILLIAM VERNON DAVIS

William is very good natured and is one of our smartest Seniors. He makes good grades but is always on hand when there is any fun on. He has many friends in Ole Hi. William intends to enter the business world and we are sure success will be his.

LORNA BURNETT DENISON

G. C.; F. C.

As a rule, she is very quiet and dignified. But such depth and artistic ability! Lorna is talented and capable—a true pal and a loyal friend.

VIRGINIA ANN DICKENSON

*"All that in woman is adored,
In thy dear self we find."*

Virginia is a sincere, true friend and a girl of excellent mental abilities. The kind of a "Pal" that one dreams of having and yet few ever find. Virginia will shine forth at college in the near future. Best of luck, "Ginney."

EVELYN MARGARET DILLON

Evelyn is one of our quiet and dignified Seniors who is always true and ever ready to help her friends. She is bubbling over with good humor and one never expects to see her angry. Evelyn expects great things from life and we hope she will not be disappointed.

"Always
Remembers Me"
Love
Thelma

THELMA HERMINA DIXON

G. C.

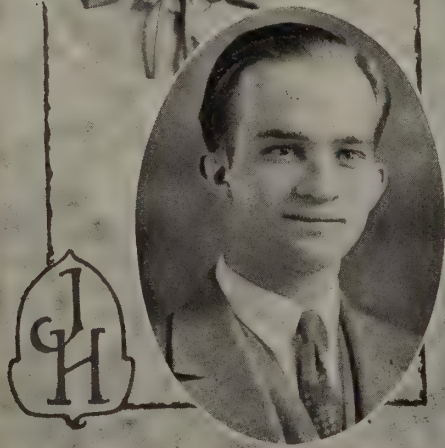

Thelma is a cute, attractive, peppy little blonde. She is a commercial student and she is very fond of "hiking" with notices. She will make some man a dandy stenographer, or will it be a ———? You've missed a lot if you don't know her!

MARTHA FRANCES DOLD

President Booster Club, '25-'26.
Secretary Athletic Association, '25-'26.
Vice President Monogram Club, '25-'26.
Program Committee Girls' Club, '25-'26.
Reporter Booster Club, '24-'25.
Athletic Association, '23-'24.
Assistant Subscription Editor ACORN, '23-'24.
Executive Committee Junior Class, '24-'25.
Varsity Basket Ball, '23-'24, '25-'26.

"Crip."

✓ HERBERT WADE DOYLE

Hi-Y; S. C.

Junior World-News Staff, '23, '24, '25.
Winner State Declamation Contest at Richmond, '23-'24.
Secretary Radio Club, '24.
Corresponding Secretary J. L. S., '25.
Coöperative Council, '25.
Vice President J. L. S., '25.
President J. L. S., '26.
Representative Inter-State Declamation Contest, '26.

Wade is that little, happy-go-lucky fellow who always wears a smile, brightening the path of those all about him. Here's wishing him success, and plenty of it.

JANIE WILMOTH DRAPER

Janie, that cute little Senior with her winning smile, has won a host of friends. She intends to be a stenographer, but to look at her hair and eyes old Hi has her doubts. Here's hoping Janie will prosper.

EVA GRACE DUDLEY

Eva, who is young, reserved and attractive, has a wonderful personality. She is the type that every one likes. Eva has expressed a desire to become a stenographer and we know she will succeed in this work. Best of success, Eva.

MILDRED RINER DUNCAN

G. C.; M. W. L. S.; C. C.

"Little but loud, poor but proud," describes this dainty ball of personality, bouncing with vitality, sweetness and friendship around the halls of Jefferson Hi! We are sure she will bounce still higher in her business career, where we know she will be a success. Good luck!

GRACE GERTRUDE DUNMAN

A girl who is smart, attractive and loved by all. Who? Grace, of course! Is she peppy? Well, just be with her for a while and you'll find that she is. By her winning personality Grace has won many friends around Ole Hi. So, wherever you go, Grace, here's to you!

MORRIS CLAYTON DUNMAN

Junior World-News, '25; Corresponding
Secretary J. L. S., '26.

Morris is a good representative of a high school boy. Although his high school life is not spectacular, he measures up to the standard in every way. He has a wonderful personality and really knows how to smile.

ELSIE ELIZABETH DYER

C. C.; M. W. L. S.

Can you imagine capability, hilarity and common sense? Well, that's Elsie. She is known all over Ole Hi for her cheery disposition. Elsie has made many life-long friendships, especially a certain "Lemon." May she always have the success that has been hers at Ole Hi.

VIRGINIA CAROLINE EARP

F. C.; G. C.

Trustworthy, dependable, able and wise,
Worthwhileness shines in her hazel eyes.
Virginia is helpful, devoted, kind-hearted and true,
She'll do with a will whatever is to do.

WILLIAM CARROLL EDDY

Here's to Bill whose work has always been of such a standard that victory was always in sight. His motto has been:

"There are loyal hearts; there are spirits brave;
There are souls that are pure and true;
Then give to the world the best you have,
And the best will come back to you."

LEWIS DANIEL FACKLER

Let us introduce Hi's motion picture authority! One of our best looking Seniors, with wonderful brown eyes. Lewis is quite a writer and a very discriminating judge of human nature. We are sure that we will buy one of his "best sellers" some day. We wish him the greatest success!

WILLIAM AIKMAN FARRIS

J. L. S., '24-'25

Known to the student body as "Farmer." He makes wonderful grades for a boy, starring in all kinds of arithmetic, geometry, etc. Aikman was born in the West and is a typical example of that section. May the goddess of fortune continue to smile on our "Farmer" in whatever he may undertake.

MARGARETTE HAZEL FIELDING

G. C.

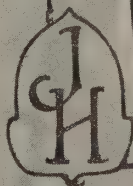

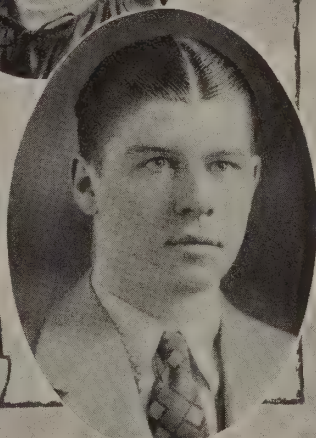

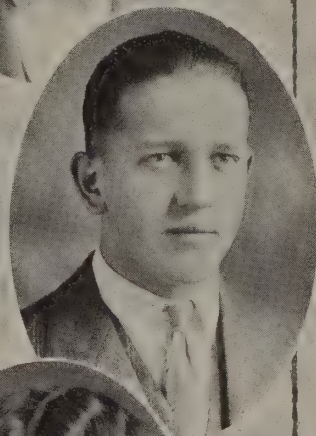

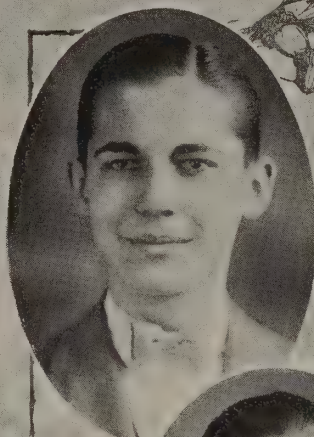

She is a rare combination of good looks, dignity and originality, possessing a host of friends 'round Ole Hi. She is planning to go to Westhampton next year and we know she will be successful if she doesn't make too many trips to U. of Va.

CHARLES FINDLAY, JR.

Track; Hi-Y

"On either side he would dispute, Confute, change hands, and still confute."

Charles! That's him. Argument for argument, happy-go-lucky, ready for a good laugh. His ambition—civil engineering. School—V. P. I. So—on your mark! Get set! GO, Charles! and may you give life a hard run.

MILTON FINE

J. L. S., '25, '26

The broncho-buster from the West, Milt, the Denverite, was a welcome addition to Jefferson Hi. His scholastic record is comparable only to the shining silver of his native state. May the best of luck always follow him and his wishes come true.

NORA ELIZABETH FINK

G. C.; M. W. L. S.

Chairman Program Committee, S. C., '25-'26.
Reporter, S. C., '26.

Sweet, energetic, naive and attractive—that's Nora. She is active in the M. W. L. S. and the Spanish Club and her influence there will linger after she has left us. She is going to Westhampton next year and we know she will be successful in her college career.

GLADYS HELEN FORBES

It seems as if a heap of pep, kindness, sweetness and good looks were all combined to make our little blonde Senior. Helen is just a bit sarcastic. After leaving Hi she will enter the business world but she will still hold a place in our hearts. Here's luck, Helen.

SPARREL EUGENE FORBES

Sparrel is one of the quieter members of the Class. When it comes to studies "he knows his stuff." He is famed as a woman-hater but you never can tell what will happen. If good wishes mean anything, then his future is already assured by the Class of '26.

HENRY COY FOSTER ✓

Has he got naughty eyes? Oh my, yes. But don't think he's frivolous from this. Coy is anything but frivolous—he has brains, a delightful personality, good looks, capability and dignity. May we predict a future for him next year at V. P. I. and then, as a mechanical engineer. How about that, Coy?

LESLIE BORING FOWLER, JR. ✓

Track; Hi-Y; J. L. S.

Here's to our Class Poet—one of the most talented boys in the Senior Class! Leslie not only excels along poetic lines but is quite a musician, too. By his attractive personality he has won a host of friends, although he has been with us but a short time. Best o' luck, Leslie!

EVELYN BENEVIS FRANKLIN ✓

Treasurer, H. E. C.; M. W. L. S.; G. C.

Stop! Look! Listen!—No, this is not a railroad crossing, but you certainly have to take notice when Evelyn comes along. Evelyn intends to be a business girl, but if she continues as "Happy" as she has been, Dan Cupid, with his little bow and arrow, will prevent it.

JIM ELIZABETH GARDNER ✓

G. C., '25-'26; President, H. E. C., '25-'26

Jim is as sweet as she is attractive. Her witty way and cheerful smile have made her popular among both teachers and pupils. Jim is graduating from the Commercial Department and we know she will make some one a good stenographer. Our heartiest wishes go with you, Jim.

LILLIAN ALPHA GISH ✓

M. W. L. S.; G. C.; F. C.
Acorn Staff, '24-'25.
Secretary Roanoke Roman, '25-'26.
Corresponding Secretary M. W. L. S., '26.
Coöperative Council, '25-'26.

One of our pretty, popular, talented and bright Seniors. What a splendid combination! Randolph-Macon will claim her next year. Alpha, here's to you!

J. R. GISH, JR.

One of our January graduates was J. R., and to say that we missed that curly-headed boy with his cherubic smile is putting it mildly! Always a good student, practical, energetic—we are sure that he will not have to fight for success.

DOROTHY ADRIENNE GLASS ✓

G. C.; F. C.; M. W. L. S.
Editor-in-Chief Junior World News, '25-'26.
Vice President French Club, '26.
Junior World-News Staff, '24-'25.
Chairman Senior Ring Committee, '26.
Membership Committee G. C., '25-'26.

"Dot" is a charming combination of pep, originality and capability. During her career at Hi these characteristics have won her many friends and we know she'll be successful at William and Mary. Best o' luck, "Dot."

MARY LUCILE GRAVES

G. C., '24-'25-'26.
W. C., '24-'25.
Junior World-News Staff, '24-'25-'26.
Manager Girls' Basket Ball, '25-'26.
Monogram Club, '26.
Coöperative Council, '24-'25.
Varsity Basket Ball, '25-'26.
Athletic Association, '26.

Here's to Lucile—a delightful pal, a talented girl, an all-round good sport and—our typical Senior!

JAMES MONROE GRAYBILL

Better known as "Jim"—he is good looking, attractive and is such a good sport that everyone likes him. Hi doesn't know what he expects to do next year, but is sure that he will make good at whatever it is. Just the best of luck to you, "Jim," ole boy!

RUTH LAUGHORN GRIGGS

Sometimes known as "Ruthie" or maybe "Dizzy." She has the kind of brown eyes you can't forget—maybe she's kinda dizzy, but she is really a sincere friend—Ruthie seems to be quite healthy but she "Ales" with "Hart" trouble quite often and is still having "Fitz."

THELMA HAIRFIELD

Thelma is the girl for us. She is one of the sweetest and most original girls in the Senior Class. There is an old saying, "Once a friend, always a friend." Well, that's Thelma. She is a good sport and capable of good work, as she always makes good grades.

ELIZABETH FRANCES HAIRSTON

G. C.; F. C.

Kind, always willing to help with the most difficult problems, a bright smile for everyone, that's Liz. She expects to specialize in music at Converse next year and her many friends at Ole Hi wish her the greatest success!

RUBY ALICE HALE
G. C.

That good-natured, lovable, ever-obliging, sincere friend is none other than Ruby Hale. You've missed something if you have not seen her Charleston. We could write pages about her, but just in a wee few words—we all love you, Ruby, and we're betting on you.

MARY OWEN HALL
G. C.; F. C.

Mary can step.
With lots of pep.
Always busy.
Sometimes dizzy.
She never worries, that is true,
So that is why we're telling you,
We will miss our Mary Hall
When school starts again next fall.

SALLIE RUTH HAMMOND
C. C.

Ruth is one of the cutest girls in the Senior Class. She is loveable and witty, and is decidedly prejudiced in favor of "Lemons." She is a good sport and always known for her good nature—her friendship is worth gaining. You gave the best, may the best come back to you!

BENJAMIN HARRISON HANCOCK
R. C., '25

Coöperative Council, '25-'26.
Vice President J. L. S., '25.
President J. L. S., '26.
Debating Representative, '26.

Good looking, debonair, always audacious, claiming to be a woman-hater; that's Handsome Harry.

ALICE EVELYN HANCOCK

Who 'tis?—Evelyn, that pretty and attractive Senior so well liked by both students and faculty. She has just the nicest disposition; she sho' has walked away with our hearts. We have worked with you and played with you and find you to be a good sport. Best o' luck, little girl.

RUTH HANKINS

Ruth is known and loved by all,
Though she isn't short and she isn't tall,
She surely can take her place in gym
And she's as athletic as any "him."
She's always around when grades come in
And we know that she will always win
In whatever she undertakes to do,
So lots of success we wish to you.

DABNEY POINDEXTER HARDY, JR.

Oh, yes, "Dick" will be missed from the halls of Ole Hi. His winning smile has won many friends who will miss him when he enters the portals of V. P. I., where he is going to study engineering. Here's to you, Dick; may you have success in whatever you undertake.

DORIS LYND AHL HARPER

This is Doris, cute and petite,
She is modest and so neat.
She likes to sew and she likes to cook,
Therefore, I would prophesy that
Some day she will be the Gracious, efficient mistress of
A home of her own—all hail
To Doris.

HAZEL KATHLEEN HARRIS

Hazel is a quiet, capable girl, loved by all who know her, for she is a friend indeed. She doesn't talk much, but what she says is worth hearing. Hazel has not decided what her future will be, but wherever you go, old pal, '26 wishes you happiness and success.

ELSIE VIRGINIA HARRIS

G. C.; M. W. L. S.

A fifty-word biography is too short to give the most important facts about so capable a girl as Elsie, whose pleasing personality would enable her to conquer the world. May sorrows stay as far away from her as the distance between the S's in "smiles."

KATHLEEN VIRGINIA HARRIS

Dear little girl with eyes of blue,
Always to your friends so true.

Cute, athletic, peppy and sweet,
Talented, smart and so petite.

'26 wishes you much success,
And you will have it we can guess.

RUBY BEATRICE HARRIS

Who is that little black-haired Senior seen at all times and everywhere around Hi last term? Yes, that's "Pete" and she's a mighty good sport and running over with fun and wit, too. And listen, boy, she's a mighty good cook. She expects to be a teacher but—? Hi extends her best wishes to her.

BERTA MARION HARTMAN

He that has patience may compass anything.

Berta is a "true blue" Senior. Always dependable, she's a joy to her teachers and a helping pal to her classmates. She loves "Math." and has devoured all that Hi could offer. She will be a success wherever she goes and whatever she does.

ANNA MAY HARTWELL

G. C.

Secretary of Class, '24-'25

May is that dizzy little girl that we meet and love in the High School whirl. Sweet an' cute an' attractive, too—Hi wishes you luck in whatever you do.

RUTH FRANCES HARTWELL

This is the girl with the oblong-shaped eyes. Although Ruth reads most all of the books and magazines in circulation rather than studying those lessons, she usually makes the grade. She is a good sport and has just loads of friends.

LILLIAN NOREEN HAWKINS

Can you imagine pep, sarcasm and common sense together? If so, you have Noreen. She surely gets good grades, but no one can guess the secret. History is her favorite subject and she is especially fond of studying King "James." Ole Hi extends to her best wishes for the future.

My son have a magnificent life

THOMAS HENRY HEADEN

Cheer Leader, '26; Class Prophet, '26;
Baseball, '26

My son One of the best sports at Hi, talented in most every way, a wonderful actor, a more wonderful dancer, and always full of pep. He does not burn the midnight oil, but we all know he will make a success of life, But—

FRANCES STROTHER HENRY

Here we introduce a versatile Senior. She goes in for all phases of sports; she writes for our school publications, and, on the side, she makes remarkable grades. She's going to Randolph-Macon next year, seeking new worlds to conquer. May we wish her all success!

RALPH STONE HICKS

Though very quiet Ralph is one of the most popular boys in the Class and also quite a ladies' (?) man. He never seems to be bothered with too much studying, but he always makes the grade and we know he will do the same in later life.

GLADYS IRENE HOAL

G. C.; M. W. L. S.

Hoal is Irish; so is Gladys. A pal who can smile under the darkest clouds as well as the brightest sunshine. Her peaceful readings and stormy debates will be remembered in M. W. L. S. long after she is brightening "someone's" home.

MARY ELIZABETH HOBBS

G. C.; C. C.

Pal of my Hi School days—yes, it's Mary. She is a good sport and a true friend. With her winning smile and pleasing personality she has won many friends around Ole Hi. She sho gets her lessons down "Pat," yet no one seems to know the solution. "Best wishes, Mary."

EVELYN WILLIAMS HOOD

Booster Club; G. C.; F. C.; Recording Secretary G. C., '25-'26; Reporter B. C., '25-'26; President of Orchestra, '25-'26; Treasurer Junior Class, '25; Chairman Publicity Committee, '25-'26; Executive Committee B. C., '25-'26.

The sweetest girl in the whole Class! And we must add—one of the most talented. Eye is famous as a musician and the Class of '26 is proud to claim her as their very own.

GRACE MILLER HORSLEY

M. W. L. S.; G. C.; S. P.

"I chatter, chatter as I go." Gracefulness of carriage, sweetness of spirit, keenness of mind, generosity of heart, sweetness of nature and all-round in character. Somebody is going to be very lucky, we think! Ole Hi will expect great things from you!

MARGARET RANSOM HORTON

G. C.; Coöperative Council, '25-'26

Pretty, talented, attractive and popular—that's Margaret. She possesses the unusual combination of brains and beauty but does not let studying interfere with her good times. Margaret is leaving Ole Hi for Brenau College. We will miss you, dear pal, but may you find success!

ELIZABETH HOUCHINS

G. C.; S. C.

"Liz," we've enjoyed your winning smile and cheery ways for quite a while. Your "Hello, Doug," has been a treat; you've made our joy in life complete. And, "Liz," we could give up most anyone excepting you. Don't call it fun—for we all love you.

GEORGIA CHAFIN HUDSON

G. C.; Glee Club, '24, '25; Orchestra, '24, '25;
Censor M. W. L. S.

Georgia is that cute, curly-haired little Senior better known as "Bugs." She is peppy, attractive and original—but that's not all—she plays the piano and violin expertly. "Bugs'" pleasing personality has won her a host of friends among both faculty and students. We'll be with you, ole pal.

LULA ELLEN HUDSON

"Forever sincere and true."

These words certainly do describe Lula for, although she has been with us only two years, she has proven herself not only to be sincere and true to her studies, but also to her school and to her classmates. May success and happiness be hers!

HELEN FRANCES HUNTER

G. C.; S. C.

Cute, sweet and smart are the three adjectives characterizing our Helen. We all envy her for her excellent grades, notwithstanding the little time she spends studying. She seems to be interested in "Brick" but we think she will spend most of her future time in Washington.

DOROTHY SOMERS HURD

G. C.

"Dot" is cute and attractive and is very much interested in "Stones" and "Red Hair." She is indifferent to studying, but she's all right! We don't know what Dot is planning to do when she leaves Ole Hi, but she'll be successful! How about it?

CLAIRE GRAY HUSKE

G. C.; F. C.

Here's to "Husky"!—one of our most attractive Seniors. We all love her but how can we help it? For few have the sweet disposition and personality that she has. Claire has won a host of friends in school and at V. P. I. Hi wishes you Godspeed!

PAUL WAYLAND IKENBERRY

Hi-Y, '24-'25; Baseball, '25-'26

Paul came to us only two years ago. Through his winning personality he has won the friendship of both boys and girls of Hi. His ambition is to be a mechanical engineer. We are sure that he will arrive, by that profession, at the station of Success in good time.

LORENZO EDWARD JEFFERSON

Hi-Y, '24, '25, '26; Associate Editor Junior World-News; Charter Member B. B. C., '24, '25, '26; Secretary of Lincoln Hi-Y.

"Ethudicius" is unquenchably enthusiastic, capable and energetic, self-confident, exasperating past description, but amiable despite it all—and that's that, for all that.

HELEN JENKINS

Young, attractive, reserved, possessing a personality all her own. Wondrously appealing to those who know her. A student, too, with a spark of genius in her eye. Helen expresses determination to become a lawyer. With her philosophical bearing she is destined to become a good one. God speed her.

CHARLES CHESTER JOHNSON

Hi-Y

Looking for a good sport? Go find "Check"! (Usually the center of attraction in the cafeteria.) He's there with the goods in basket ball, tennis or what not! Plenty of sense, dignity—also pep. Chester's many friends know his excellent record at Ole Hi—Keep it up!

JOSEPH LEE JOHNSON

Lee Johnson is a studious (?) and very dignified Senior. Although he has a rather sleepy nature, he manages to get his lessons. His disposition is hard to ruffle. Latin is his "Waterloo," but he excells in science and geometry. He's the guy who stalks through the halls, about five or ten minutes after nine. He has been behind before, but he may be first at last.

MARIE JOSEPHINE JOHNSON

G. C.; Secretary H. E. C.

The sweetest smile, most beautiful brown eyes, lovable disposition and the bestest pal ever. That's Marie. Pleasure doesn't interfere with Marie's studies for now that she's "Nerren" her goal she is sure to come out with flying colors. The best o' luck, old pal, in whatever you undertake.

SELMA KATZ

M. W. L. S.; Hi Orchestra

Selma is one of the musicians of Hi. She also takes active part in the M. W. L. S. and is some debater. Selma expects to continue "the good" work next year at Randolph-Macon. The Class of '26 wishes her success and lots of it.

FANNIE MUSE KEEN

F. C.

"Precious jewels come in small packages."

Yes, Fannie is small and, some say, quiet, but that does not hinder her cheery disposition. She never worries herself about studying but always comes out all right. We don't know what you are planning for, but whatever you do may success go with you, friend of ours.

EVELYN LUCILLE KEISTER

"To know her is to love her."

Evelyn is a true pal and is loved by all who know her. She is an excellent student and always ready to lend a helping hand. She is the proverbial "friend in need." We wish you the best of luck, dear pal.

MAE ELIZABETH KELLEY

G. C.; Sergeant-at-Arms

It's a rare thing to find so many lovable qualities in one girl as is found in Mae. Sweet, attractive, smart, a good sport and true friend. What's Hi's loss is Jimmy's gain! Sh——!

Jimmy Sweetest

MARGUERITE JULIA KELLY

Booster Club; G. C.; Coöperative Council

Why, it's Peg! 'Nuf sed! But I must say a true friend in every way. Peg is a good Booster and a faithful Girls' Club member. Her sweet voice has won her the name of Hi's prima donna. Hi's best wishes would be only too little!

MARY PEYTON KERNS

F. C.; G. C.

No brains, but—what can't she do? She can do big things and we'll be expecting them of her. Though she is a wee bit dizzy—that only makes her sweeter—now can you guess why she's popular? It's because she's just "Patsy."

KATHRYN LOUISE KESLER

G. C.; Booster Club

Know Kitty? Sure, you are a stranger at Hi, if you don't, for who could miss that mixture of pep, sunny disposition, smiles—and, remember, she is a Booster. Kathryn will surely be missed by teachers and pupils next year after she has gone to Farmville. Best o' luck, Kitty!

EDITH KATHLEEN KILLINGER

G. C.

Meet Edith, Hi's striking blonde, usually found "hanging around" the gym. Edith is one of our commercial students. However, she will attend the University to study architecture—some day she will be planning "our bungalows" for us. Here's luck, Edith.

ARTHUR CONNEL KROLL

Arthur is one of Hi's smartest students but is quiet and reserved. Arthur came to us from out west. He is a member of the orchestra and expects to go to some Tech school to take up civil engineering.

CHARLES GORDON KULP

Track, '25; Manager Track, '26

Gordon is a studious and ambitious pupil, who is graduating with splendid grades. He has been a member of the track team for two years and, although he has not decided what college he will enter, the best wishes of J. H. S. go with him wherever he goes.

PERRINNE KATHERINE LANCASTER

Who's the dignified Senior? That's just "Wren" and, really, she's not dignified when you know her. Very athletic and studious. She's gonna be our trained nurse, too, so let's all get sick; or better, well. Best o' luck, good friend!

JOE GRAY LAWRENCE

Joe is one of cutest and wittiest little Seniors. He is in love and, everybody says, he has given his "Hart-well." He is an excellent student, especially in math and mechanical drawing. Joe is going to V. P. I. next year and good luck is the parting wish of '26 for it's "most attractive boy."

SORRETA EDYTH LEVY

G. C.; M. W. L. S.

When you see a bobbed-haired girl,
Full of pep, with lots of whirl,
That's Sorreta.
Sweet and pretty, call her that,
'Cause everyone knows it's a fact.
She can play, dance and sing,
Charleston and everything.
If you think she isn't cute,
Ask the boys of the Institute.

SAMUEL EDWARD LOVELL

Football, '23-'24; J. L. S., '25; F. C., '25-'26

"Still waters run deep."
Student, friend, pal—That's him!

ANNE VAUGHAN LUNSFORD

F. C.; President G. C., '25-'26; Program Committee G. C., '25; President Wishefu Club, '23-'24; Sergeant-at-Arms, '25-'26; Executive Committee Junior Class, '24-'25; Executive Committee Girls' Club, '25-'26.

Who? Oh, you know Anne; everyone does, for she is one of the main props of J. H. S. We cannot imagine Ole Hi without Anne for she is prominent in everything and we shall not forget her—no, never.

LULA MAY LYBROOK

ROBERT CUSTIS LYBROOK

Hi-Y, '24, '25, '26
President Senior Class.
Football, '24-'25.

—JUST "BOB"—

ROBERT LEE LYN, JR. ✓

"Bob" Lynn is one of the best old scouts in the Senior Class. He's witty, not too studious, full of fun, and freckled-faced. Bob expects to attend V. M. I. next year and we are sure that he can put over in good style anything he undertakes. Here's to you, Bobbie!

Sarah Mahaney
SARAH GEPHART MAHANEY

Booster Club; G. C.; Treasurer Senior Class, '26; Secretary Junior Class, '25; Program Chairman Girls' Club, '26; Joke Editor, ACORN, '24-'25; Commercial Representative ACORN, '26.

Sarah is petite and attractive, everyone knows and likes her because she is a true friend and a good sport. Sarah is very fond of crackers, especially "Graham."

MARY ELIZABETH MALONE

G. C., '24-'26; M. W. L. S., '24-'26; R. C., '24-'25; J. W.-N. S., '25-'26; Chairman Music Committee M. W. L. S., '25.

A rare example of attractiveness, sweetness and a personality filled with sympathy, sincerity and a friendship worth cultivating. We predict a successful future for Elizabeth. May success and happiness be with her always!

EDWARD LEE MARSH

Monogram Club, '23, '24, '25, '26; Secretary and Treasurer Monogram Club, '26; Football, '24, '25; Manager Basket Ball, '24, '25, '26; Assistant Manager Basket Ball, '23.

Light hair—mischievous blue eyes—Ole Hi's first choice on managing basket ball teams. Popular with the ladies—yes, you know the one we mean—that certain Eddie of ours. Eddie Marsh—luck to you.

ELIZABETH CAMILLA MARTIN

G. C.; E. C.

Elizabeth is quiet and dignified, yet she is ever ready for fun. She is an ideal chum and a good student. She came from Richmond and has been with us only one year. John Marshall's loss has been Jefferson Hi's gain. Hi wishes you the best of luck, Elizabeth!

JAMES STAFFORD MARTIN

Hi-Y

He is one of the smartest in the Class but not in importance for he sustains his place among us. We're wishing him just lots of luck next year at Roanoke College and then at Virginia Tech.

RUTH RACHEL MARTIN

M. W. L. S., '26

A combination of wit and humor that is so well known at Hi. Ruth is one of our most talented pianists and intends to specialize in music. From all indications she will excel Paderewski and Hi, meanwhile, wishes her the best of luck.

SHERMAN SANFORD MARTIN

One of our best looking and most talented "sheiks" in the Senior Class. Sanford has only been with us a year but in this short time he has won many friends. He is an exceedingly talented musician and intends to enter a conservatory of music next year. Best o' luck, Sanford.

FRANCES LEE MASON

B. C.; G. C.; A. C.; F. C.
Vice President Senior Class, '26; Vice President Girls' Club, '25-'26; Senior Representative ACORN Staff, '25-'26; Reporter F. C., '26; Secretary W. C., '22-'23; Captain Freshman Basket Ball, '22-'23; Chairman Service Committee W. C., '23-'24.

Frances is a small bundle of vivaciousness, personality, capability and pep. Though small she holds a large place in our hearts and we'll sure hate to see her go.

CATHERINE LEE MASTIN

"Precious things come in small packages," so we 'spose that's the reason "Kate's" so small. Her sunny disposition has won her hosts of friends around Ole Hi. Though she never studies she always makes the grade. In other words, she's a prize package.

VIOLA FRANCES MAYHEW

Victory always, she rarely meets defeat,
In the many tasks she chances to meet.
Optimistic and friendly—one for all woes,
Loving and helpful to all whom she knows.
Ambitious to be the best in the world,
"Viola" is just an all-round girl.

WILLIAM TOGO McAFEE

William McAfee—our tallest and best looking and one of our most attractive, too! He expects to attend the University of Kentucky and Johns Hopkins—yes, you've guessed it—he's going to be a doctor and a skillful one, we'll bet. Hi will miss you next year, William!

FRANCES CATHERINE McCUE

Did you ask for a pretty, attractive, cute, sensible girl? Well, that's Catherine! She's a good student, too. You'd better not ask her about studying! We hear she's going to be a nurse, but you can't tell about that from the way she's capturing hearts. There's nothing like a dreamy, blue-eyed girl!

WILLIAM LINDSAY McCUTCHEN

"Bill" is that quiet Senior who never has much to say but when he speaks his words always seem to pull down the good grades. He excels in math and science and is planing to take up mechanical engineering. Here's to you, Bill, for success in all you undertake!

CLARA VIVIAN McDONALD

G. C.; H. E. C.

Lots of charm and exquisite air, a dash of sarcasm, plenty of pep and enthusiasm, a winning personality, a good sport, a real friend. Ambitious? Oh, my, yes! Vivian expects to enter Harrisonburg Normal next fall where she will fulfill these ambitions.

ELSIE MAE McFARLAND

Elsie is one of our sweetest girls. Her lovable disposition has won for her a host of friends at Hi. She is very studious and always pulls in the highest grades. Whatever she may accept as her life's work, we know she will succeed. Best luck, Elsie.

MILDRED GERTRUDE McNEIL ✓

C. C.

Mildred—whose sterling qualities, attractive appearance and delightful personality has endeared her to all of us—is very clever and a favorite with everyone around Hi. She is a commercial student and will make some one a fine "Stenog." Here's to you, Mildred. You're a good sport!

MADELINE ELLEN MEREDITH ✓

G. C.

Madeline is one grand, good scout; the kind the world needs more of and can't get on without. She has a winning personality which has won for her many friends. She expects to be a stenographer—but what about that certain party? May she be always successful in future years.

JOHN HAYWARD MICHAEL ✓

President Hi-Y, '26; B. B. C.; Treasurer Junior Hi-Y, '25; ACORN Staff, '25-'26.

Need we say more of the "Most Popular" boy in the Class? He who has such worth speaks ably for himself. All hail to our very own!

RACHEL ELLEN MICHAEL

F. C.; Secretary and Treasurer of Booster Club, '25-'26; Chairman of Social Committee Girls' Club; Executive Committee of Booster Club; Executive Committee Junior Class, '24-'25.

To meet her is to realize an everlasting friend. One that smiles and never sighs; the friend you'll want to win.

GEORGE MILFORD MILLIKEN, JR.

Hi-Y, '24-'26; Monogram Club, '26; Football, '24-'26; Track, '26.

George is one of our most popular boys to graduate this year. He is known as good looking and a wonderful football player. Here's to George! May he always make as great a success as he has at dear ole J. H. S.

ATLA VIRGINIA MITCHELL

G. C.; M. W. L. S.; R. C.

A typical Senior, just good all around; to go further than that, we're here to say, brilliant, athletic, good looking and true, the best in the world. "Atla," here's to you!

JOHN PENN MOIR

John is a very quiet member of our Class who is liked by all. He is a good sport at all times; he never knows when he has had enough—Latin—nevertheless, he is always there when its time to pass, and passes. John intends to go to Roanoke College next year. We wish him success!

JOE FRANCIS MOODY

Monogram Club, '26; Hi-Y, '24, '25, '26; B. B. C., '24, '25, '26; Football, '24, '25; Track, '24.

"Moody" is always seen with a smile and this is why he is one of Hi's most popular boys, his motto being "you know me, girls." "Moody" held an end position on the Football Team and is said to be one of the best in the State. Here's luck to him at V. M. I.

CYRIL CHARLES MORGAN

Hi-Y; Chairman Program Committee, Hi-Y

We do not have to broadcast "Cy's" name around Hi—he has made his debut on the stage several times in a series of roles. Cyril leaves us for Lehigh University—that is, if he passes comprehensives. We think Jefferson Hi's rep will be safe in his hands.

KATHRYN ELIZABETH MOUNFIELD

G. C.

Now Kathryn's quite the stuff; the most attractive of girls, truest of friends and the best of students. Although she is very quiet she has a way of making herself known. Kathryn's going to Randolph-Macon and they sho are getting something worth while. Lots of luck.

MARY ELIZABETH MULLINS

S. C.

Some people may think that she is quiet but if you don't believe she can talk just get her started. Mary is always ready for fun, and can she laugh? Yet, with her sport, she does not neglect her studies, as her grades show. Whatever her future may be her Class of '26 wishes her success.

PLEASANT BAXTER MURPHY

Well, you could guess Pat's "rep" by the place he won in the Class Mirror—"No Brains—BUT." We think that honor was well placed for he "Does" "Resemble" MacManus' character in the "funny paper." But there's the "BUT" that means so much and Pat has surely won that popularity in Ole Hi.

HARRY MARVIN NAFF

Marvin is one of our Christmas graduates who has been missed very much during the spring term. He is an excellent student and is liked by both faculty and students. No matter the time of day, Marvin always has a good word for everyone. Hi's best wishes go with him!

ROBERT CARY NICHOLS, JR.

Hi-Y

"Nick" is one of our most attractive Seniors and no one knows how we missed him after he finished at Christmas. He sure knows his stuff when it comes to dancing. Although he is our "biggest bluff" he is not bluffing in Lynchburg. May he be a huge success at Virginia Tech.

RAYMOND LEE PAINE

Hi-Y

Raymond is that tall, collegiate-looking Senior whom friends know as a good sport, ready to take a joke. Yet, with all his good looks, Ray has a large share of capability and we feel sure he will succeed in his life's work, whatever it may be.

MILDRED OLIVIA PECK ✓

G. C.; H. E. C.

Mildred's sunny disposition and talkative manner has won a place in the hearts of many members of the Class. She may be small in stature but not in intelligence—her grades vouch for that. Whatever her future occupation, we wish her much success!

LENORE ELIZABETH PEDIGO

A live wire and an attractive girl—that's Lenore. She has a certain way about her you just can't overlook. Speaking of study, that's beyond her, yet she gets there. We all love you, old pal, and wish you the very best.

LETITIA PENN

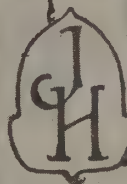

World Fellowship Committee, Girls' Club

"Tish" is one of our sweetest and most popular Seniors. Her cheery smile and winning personality have gained her heaps of friends. W. & M. gains by Hi's loss and we all know "Tish" will capture all hearts there. Best o' luck, "Tish," ole deah!

OLGA MARGARETHA PETTERSON

*"Not too sober, not to gay,
But a sweet, true little girl in every way."*

Olga is one of those sweet, quiet and studious girls. However, she has a great deal of fun about her. Olga's grades are among the best. Best o' luck, little pal.

*Jane dear, all

"remember Always"
1915*

FRED BARNETT PETTIT

Fred is one of our quiet Seniors. He seems to get good grades though we seldom see him studying. We do not know what he is planning to do next year, but we wish him the best of luck in his chosen occupation.

GEORGE LEROY POYTHRESS

Leroy is one of the most studious boys in the Class. He pulls in the grades, too. He is ever willing to lend a helping hand to his classmates. We do not know what Leroy's ambition is but here's hoping he will reach it with flying colors!

HENRY ALFRED PRILLAMAN

Track, '26

Alfred has only been with us a year, coming here from Galloway High. During this time he has made many friends and made good in his studies. He has not decided his life's work but has the best wishes of Ole Hi as he continues his studies at Hampden-Sidney.

MATTHEW CARL RICHARDS, JR.

Vice President Hi-Y

Carl, known by everyone at Hi as the good-looking boy with black hair and brown eyes, mischievous and good natured, he has won his way into our hearts since he came from Maury in '24. V. P. I. will profit when she receives so capable a student. Good luck!

*Happy Days
Carl*

GERTRUDE PAULINE RICHARDSON
G. C.; M. W. L. S.

With her dark brown hair and lovely eyes, she is most attractive. A splendid student, a fine pal, true blue and loyal, too; that's Gertrude! She will reflect honor on Ole Hi when she goes to Farmville. May success ever attend her is our wish!

YVAN LOFTIN RIPLEY

Hi-Y, '24, '25, '26; R. C., '24, '25
Business Manager the ACORN, '25, '26

'Course you know who 'tis—that busy person rushing down the hall. He's business manager of the ACORN and quite a capable one, too. Virginia Tech will gain our business man next year. Long may he prosper.

ELEANOR EDNA ROBERTSON

President M. W. L. S., '25
Treasurer M. W. L. S., '26

One of the cleverest girls in the Senior Class. Eleanor is known for her keen sense of humor, her clever tongue and her brilliant mind. We just couldn't get along without Eleanor and we expect great things of her in the future.

RUTH ELLIOTT ROBERTSON

That pretty, dark-haired Senior, always smiling and displaying her adorable dimples. She's a good sport, but never neglects her lessons. Sh—listen to this secret—Ruth's somewhat of a poet. Some day we'll be reading her poems in the newspapers. Well, here's to Ruth, the best o' pals.

PHILIP HORTENSTINE ROPP

J. L. S.; Junior World-News, '25, '26

Yes, Philip has plenty of talent and ability—literary, musical and dramatic. He's right there with the grades, too. He's original and possesses an interesting personality. We are sure he will be successful at the University next year. Here's to Philip! Hi wishes him luck always!

CHARLES HAMILTON SANDERS

Track Team, '23, '24, '25.
Manager Track Team, '24, '25.
"Rusty"

MARVIN HENRY SAUNDERS

Vice President Spanish Club, '26

Marvin has made an enviable record in Hi. Would that we had more of his type—clean cut, energetic, ambitious, industrious, dependable, of pleasing personality, an all-around, A-1 student. At college he will make the fellows in the class of electrical engineering sit up and take notice some day.

MARY LOUISE SAUNDERS

A girl blessed with a high standard along with unbounded attractiveness, express geniality and good sportsmanship. She is exceedingly popular and an excellent dancer. With these outstanding traits her success in life will be assured.

WADE HAMPTON SAUNDERS ✓

Bud, one of our most popular Seniors, does not seem to have bothered much about his studies but is a very proficient student, especially in solid geometry. Hi will miss him next year but V. P. I. will be benefited by the loss. "Oh, Bud," here's to you.

LOIS GARLAND SECRIST

M. W. L. S.; G. C.

*True to herself,
True to her friends,
True to her duty always.*

If you see a sweet little brunette and hear a funny little giggle you know it's "Doey." J. H. S. will sho lose a good student and a loyal friend when "Doey" leaves. Here's to you, ole pal!

HAZELTINE MAY SETTLE

*Far may we search before we find
A heart so gentle and so kind.*

This is certainly true of Hazeltine for she is always gentle and kind. She is one of our modest, reserved young ladies of Ole Hi. She is planning to be a stenographer. Hi wishes her best of luck!

MILDRED KATHRYN SHAFER ✓

B. C., '25-'26; G. C., '25-'26; Secretary Senior Class; Chairman Decoration Committee; Junior World-News Staff, '26; Varsity Basket Ball, '25-'26; Monogram Club; Secretary Wishefu Club, '23-'24; Captain Freshman Basket Ball, '22-'23, '23-'24.

"Beauty, brains and wit" are here happily combined. Her graduation is a loss to the scholastic, athletic, artistic and social life of Ole Hi.

MANIS SHAPIRO

Known to all his friends as "Manny" he is always "there" with his cheerful, carefree, yet independent, disposition. "Manny" is athletically inclined and though not proclirous towards studying, he gets there just the same! Lots o' luck, ole man, at U. of Va.

LOUISE AGATHA SHOFFNER

B. C.; F. C.; G. C.; Treasurer F. C.
Decorative Committee Girls' Club, '24, '25, '26

With charming ways and modest air
"Pinkey" is loved everywhere.
Blue eyes that make you plan and dream,
Friend Bob is dreaming now it seems.
Just the girl you can't forget,
The kind you're awfully glad you met.

MARY VIRGINIA SHOWALTER

G. C.

Virginia is one of our sweetest and peppiest Seniors. She is very quiet but has lots of life. She will be missed by all of her friends, but they wish her the very best luck. Here's to you, Virginia!

VIRGINIA STEPHENS SHOWALTER ✓

Full of pep and laughter, always ready to help anyone in trouble and a brilliant musician; that's Virginia. If a friend, a true one; never worrying, but always spreading sunshine. She is bound to succeed.

ISADORE SHURE

Track, '25-'26

Isadore is a studious pupil, as shown by the fine grades made in all his classes. He is also a track star of renown, having been on the varsity two years. Isadore will study medicine at V. P. I. and we know that he will be a success wherever he goes.

KATHRYN CECILIA SCHULKCUM

G. C.

An attractive, lovable and friendly Senior is "Kit." Although she has been with us only a year she has made a host of friends. She manages to get fine grades despite her good times. Best wishes of '26, through life and college, "Kit."

LOUISE ELEANOR SIMMONS

G. C.; H. E. C.

Peppy and sweet, and very neat.

Tall and stately, always smiling, has lots of friends. That's Louise. Not given to hard study but she gets there with the grades just the same. Best wishes of the Class of '26.

MYNA ARTA SMITH

Myna is another dark-haired Senior. She is a commercial student and is going to work for a short time but anticipates going to college after a few years of work. Myna is always smiling, is very lovable and attractive. Here's to you, Myna. May your life be a huge success.

EVELYN SNOW

Evelyn is that attractive Senior with beautiful brown eyes and hair. She has a big heart that is overflowing with the sincere desire to help the other fellow. Evelyn, the best chum in the world, may your friends in the future care for you as your friends in the present.

FLORENCE HEPBURN SPINDLE

G. C.; F. C.; M. W. L. S.

What will Hi do without Flossie? When in need of a real artist you can always call on her. Independent, indifferent, yet a true friend. Florence does not hurt herself studying but she always comes out on top. We hope some day to see our "nightingale" in grand opera.

DOROTHY ITALENA SPEESE

G. C.

Witty, attractive, original, lazy and a good sport—'nuf sed—that's Italea. Studies? Well, she slides through. Here's wishing you success and happiness in your life at W. & M. next year, Italea!

RUTH STANLEY

G. C.; H. E. C.

O' course you know her. She's the good-looking blonde, with the winning ways. Ruth is very popular and is always in demand, especially by —(?). Say, have you ever heard her sing? Ole Hi will be proud of her as a prima donna. The best wishes of Ole Hi go with you, Ruth.

VIVIAN LECRETIA STANLEY

Here's to "Slats," she's all right. Find us one who has a more attractive and bright, charming personality, quite full of fun; to catch one better, you'll surely have to run. She tries to lead a business life but we're afraid some one will claim her for his wife.

CAROLYN ST. CLAIR

G. C.; S. C.

There are few of us who possess such a magnetic personality as Carolyn, always bubbling over with laughter and ready for a good time. In parting with Carolyn we are losing a good friend, a true sport and a fine student. May all success and happiness be hers through life!

FRANCES ALLEN STEGER

G. C.; F. C.

Who is the tall, good-natured girl with the winning smile? That's Steger! She doesn't exert herself studying but she usually makes "75." Although it's hard to believe that Frances is ever serious we are sure she will succeed in her dramatic profession. Emerson's gain is Ole Hi's loss.

CHARLES ROBERT STEVENS

Hi-Y

"Stevie" is well thought of and well liked by both his teachers and fellow students. He always stands well in his classes and takes an active part in the school activities. '26 wishes him the best of luck in whatever he undertakes.

Please remember!
To Geo' Sue

GEORGE RAYMOND STEVENS

Raymond is a fine sport and a real friend to own. He has a quiet nature and makes good grades, apparently without effort. Raymond expects to attend the U. of Va. and we are sure he will attain success there. Here's best of luck to you, Raymond.

SUE CASSELL STEVENS

G. C.; F. C.

The attractive brown-eyed Senior, who represents intellect, personality and good sportsmanship. She's one of the best little dancers that we know and—can she do the Charleston? Well, we'll say she can! She expects to attend Goucher College next year. Here's to the youngest of the Class.

MARY LOUISE STIFF

Louise is one of our cutest and peppiest Seniors. "Dizzy" sure is some little dancer. She has many friends in Ole Hi who hate to lose her but who wish her the best of luck in future life. Here's to you, Louise!

HARRY BENJAMIN STONE, JR.

Hi-Y

Even if he is attractive 'n cute 'n everything, he sho knows what sarcasm is! Harry B.'s hair is of a marvelous blue-red. Always good natured, everyone knows him. Harry B. intends to be a doctor—specialist—and judging from his high school career and capability he is sure to succeed.

Forever
Harry

FRANCES ALLINE STORES

All that know Alline cannot help but love her 'cause she is jolly, witty, full of fun. A truer friend would be hard to find. From all we can hear Alline seems about to embark upon that great sea of "matrimony," leaving Ole Hi forever.

MILDRED MORRIS STUMP

Happenings Editor ACORN, '26; Membership Committee Girls' Club, '26; Booster Club, '24, '25, '26.

She may be Mildred to some but she's "Billy" to us! "Billy" is a mixture of brains, pep, popularity and attractiveness. A blonde of a very unusual type and through her wonderful personality has won for herself real friends around Ole Hi. Any college will be lucky to claim her!

WILLIAM JAMES SUBLETT

"Bill" is another one of the miniature Seniors in height, but not in classroom standing. "Bill" is very serious but always ready to see the funny side of anything. He is very popular among his classmates. "Bill" expects to do a little manual work before going to college.

LILLIAN GERTRUDE SURFACE

G. C.; H. E. C.; S. C.

"Smiling Sunshine," that's her. The most happy Senior; the girl who came to us only three years ago, has won her way into the hearts of all Hi's faculty and students. Do you know why? Because of her capability, smiles and winning personality.

HELEN GAE TESTERMAN

Here's a friendly little maiden,
Loved by all who know her well.
Full of fun yet sometimes earnest,
As her report card always tells.
She says she would not have a "cave man,"
Just a "Hill-man" for her will do.
You'll always have Ole Hi's best wishes,
Helen, old sport, here's to you.

ORA LA VIDA TINNELL

Ora is very cute and petite,
Her personality is extremely sweet.
If information, or anything, you should need,
Ask Ora, she'll prove a friend indeed.
As for a cook, well, she is a dandy.
If you don't believe this just ask "Andy."

MILDRED LEE TINSLEY

G. C.; M. W. L. S.

One of the jolliest and cutest girls in this year's Class. "Millie" has won a host of friends by her jolly disposition. We don't know what college she will attend, but Hi knows she will meet with success. That's a fact!

MYRTLE BEATRICE THOMASON

G. C.; H. E. C.; C. C.

There is an old saying, "once a friend, always a friend." Well, that's Myrtle. She is very talented, a good sport and always out for a good time, but she always manages to get good grades. Myrtle, here's wishing you success in anything you attempt.

JANE TILGHMAN

Good natured and attractive is Jane. She has been with us only one year, hailing from West Virginia, nevertheless, her grades speak for her. Jane is undecided about her future, but from all indications we believe she will be caught up by some handsome sheik.

DOROTHY LEONA TOWLES

G. C.; F. C.; President French Club, '25-'26;
Coöperative Council, '25-'26

When you're blue and "kinda" lonesome, too, "Stop! Look! Listen!" for Dorothy. Is she cute? Is she smart? I'll say she is. Dorothy is one of our youngest graduates and the place she leaves will be hard to fill.

MARY GRACE TROUT

G. C.

One of the "peppiest" girls at Hi. If you don't believe she can dance—just ask "us." Mary Grace is cute and interesting; everybody jus' has to love her. W. & M. is to be "Graced" next year by her presence and we know she'll be a huge success!

ANGIE ELIZA TURNER

G. C.; W. C.; Junior World-News Staff, '25, '26; Class Historian, '26.

Angie—that charming little Senior who is capable and talented. She is fond of literary work and is a contributor to the ACORN. Angie has the pep and personality which make a true friend and pal. Hollins claims her next year. We'll miss you, Angie!

ELSIE MEADOR TURNER

F. C.

The golden-haired girl from Franklin. Her two years at Ole Hi have meant lots to her many friends. She doesn't say much in Class but among the "bunch"—oh, my! Elsie goes to Farmville next year. Here's to Elsie, brown-eyed and true, all good wishes go to you.

MARY ELIZABETH TURNER ✓

G. C.; W. C.

Is she cute and lots of fun? You bet she is, and more. Mary's got personality that's won her many friends around Ole Hi. Does she have a good time? Absolutely! Bluff? Sure! But she always gets there in her Hudson's speed. This bunch of fun and good nature will attend Hollins next year.

FLORENCE GRIFFIN VAUGHAN ✓

G. C.; Monogram Club, '24, '25, '26; Athletic Association, '26; Track, '24; Basket Ball, '24, '25; Captain Basket Ball, '26.

First you take a smile bewitching,
Two blue eyes that shine all day,
Wavy golden tresses (long, not bobbed),
Then fun and laughter gay,
Add a sudden streak of lightning,
Grace and spirit of a fawn,
When you put them all together
You will have our "Flossie" Vaughan.

MAE CATHERINE VAUGHAN ✓✓

Pep, school spirit, capability and happy-go-lucky are the words that describe her. Yes, you have seen her around the halls of Ole Hi with her laughing eyes and winning smile. Mae is planning to do stenographic work but we don't think so from the indication on her finger. Best o' luck, "Bobbie."

SUSIE BELLE WEBBER

G. C.; S. C.

Is Susie cute and attractive? I reckon so! She's always in a good humor and just seems to bring sunshine with her. She's not fond of work, but she always comes out on top. She's a good sport and loves a good time. Farmville is the lucky school that'll claim her.

JAMES CLYDE WEBSTER

Clyde has given a good account of himself during his four years at Ole Hi. He has proven to be a good student, a good friend and a good sport. He hasn't decided on his future career but we wish him much success in whatever he undertakes in life.

JULIA JANYCE HELEN WEDDELL

F. C.; M. W. L. S.

Who? Helen, of course. Helen is sweet, attractive and "turrible" friendly. When it comes to good grades she just naturally shines. She is going to finish in summer school and after that—she isn't sure—but here's '26's best wishes for happiness and success.

ALMA JEAN WEDDELL

M. W. L. S.; F. C.; G. C.

When some one comes along and takes your breath, then that's Jean. She made her exit at Christmas and left us grieving. Jean is attractive, sweet, sincere, different, a wonderful pal. She says she is going to be a teacher, but—May happiness be yours lil' girl.

MARY ELIZABETH WEEKS

C. C.

Frank and independent; that's me all over.

"Liz" is that cute little brown-eyed girl you've seen around the halls. She's a good sport and we all love her. "Liz" likes Roanoke just a little bit, but we wonder why she is always going to Lexington! Here's to you, "Liz."

DAVID WEINSTEIN

President Coöperative Council, '25-'26.

Junior Representative Coöperative Council, '24-'25.

Editor Roanoke Roman, '25-'26.

Secretary J. L. S., '25.

Debating Team, '26.

Chairman Membership Committee J. L. S., '25-'26.

"Just David"

Yes, he has school spirit! Sure, he's a worker! Of course, he's brilliant in and out of class, and we don't mean maybe, he's some literary star.

PAULINE WELCH

"Pal of our high school days"—sure, it's Pauline. Besides being a pal, she's one of the most efficient girls in the Class. Just call out "service, please," and Pauline is right there. May she have success a-plenty all through life.

ETHEL ALMA WELD

G. C.

Here's to Ethel, one of our most popular, sweetest and best natured Seniors. She is full of pep and wherever she goes she carries a smile. Ethel is liked by all and Ole Hi sho will miss her. Oh, you little queen!

AUDREY ELIZABETH WHITE

G. C.; M. W. L. S.; Roanoke Roman Staff;
ACORN Staff

Capable, gifted and charming, too,
This is Audrey through and through;
Whenever there's anything to be done,
Call on Audrey, she's just the one.
'Tis needless to say, for all can see,
She's everything a girl should be.

HATTIE ANDERSON WHITE

G. C.; H. E. C.

Hattie is a loyal friend and a good sport.
Hattie plans to be a nurse and will enter Walter Reed Hospital in October. She will be greatly missed by her friends next year, but here's wishes from Ole Hi.

MARY PAULINE WHITE

G. C.; M. W. L. S.

Pauline is one of our most attractive Seniors.
She is a good student and along with it takes part in the school activities. She is talented in music. She is a true friend and is loved by all who know her. Jefferson High wishes her success at college next year.

ANNA TAYLOR WHITMAN

G. C.; W. C.; S. C.;
Roanoke Roman Staff, '25-'26

Has she charm, and has she pep, and has she a good "rep"? You bet! A good student, a grand, good sport, a true pal—that's "Whit."
She has plenty of personality and loads of friends. She's a girl in a million. May all of her dreams come true!

ARTHUR LEWIS WIMMER

Hi-Y, '24, '25, '26; Big Brother, '25-'26
Baseball, '25, '26

Quiet, dignified and friendly—that's Arthur, exactly. He is athletic and popular among both boys and girls, although he is seldom seen among the fairer sex. We know he will always be a credit to J. H. S. wherever he goes.

"Red"

FRANCES ANNE WILSON

G. C.; F. C.; H. E. C.; M. W. L. S.; W. C.; Editor ACORN, '25, '26; Corresponding Secretary Girls' Club, '25, '26; Recording Secretary M. W. L. S., '25, '26; Roanoke Roman Staff, '24, '25; Winner Second State Prize Chemistry Essay Contest, '25.

Meet the Editor-in-Chief! A fascinating, titian-haired girl who, in addition to being the guiding light of the ACORN, is the "Most Capable" girl in the Senior Class. Possessing unusual ability and an undeniable charm of personality makes her a very rare combination, but Frances possesses each attribute!

JANE ELIZABETH WILSON

G. C., '24, '25, '26; W. C., '23-'24; M. W. L. S., '24, '25, '26; Junior World-News, '24, '25, '26; Reporter Girls' Club, '25, '26; President M. W. L. S., '25; Chairman Credit Committee, '25; Corresponding Secretary, '25; Coöperative Council, '25, '26; Chairman Invitation Committee, '26; Representative Public Speaking, '26.

She's a winsome, wee thing. A striking appearance, remarkable ability, a vivacious personality—Elizabeth!

MARY LEE WILTSEE

Another blonde! Mary Lee is cute, clever and capable. She leaves a splendid record behind her and a host of friends. She is going to Hollins next year where the Class of '26 expects her to continue her record of efficiency. Good luck to her in her future career!

IRVIN ISAAC WOLLOCH

J. L. S., '23, '24, '25, '26; Treasurer J. L. S., '25; State Reader, '25; Chairman Pin Committee J. L. S., '24-'25; Tennis Squad, '24.

For capability and cleverness Irvin is one of the few Seniors who "take the cake." Being literarily inclined, he represented the School as the Boy Reader. Our best wishes follow him.

NEWTON OLIVER WOOD, JR.

Advertising Manager ACORN, '25, '26; Assistant Advertising Manager, '24, '25; Hi-Y, '24, '25, '26; Football, '25, '26.

He doesn't live up to his name one little bit, for what he "Wood" he always does. N. O. is an individual of some purpose and accomplishment. Success will not be lacking to him, whatever may be his work.

SALLY IRENE WOOD

G. C.

Of course, you know her! Everyone does! That cute-looking, attractive, little Senior that has jus' plenty of pep and charm. William and Mary will be the lucky school in the fall of '26.

CLIFTON WOODRUM, JR.

Secretary-Treasurer B. B. C.; Manager Baseball, '26; ACORN Staff, '24-'25; Assistant Business Manager ACORN, '25-'26; Athletic Association, '25-'26.

"Cliff" is a tall, though not a dignified member of '26. He is always out for a good time even if there is none to be had. He will spend next year being ratted at V. M. I.

WILLIE LEE WOODS

Willie Lee, or "Billie," is one of our sweetest and most dignified Seniors. Although she came to us in our Junior year the Class would never have been complete without her. She is always ready to be helpful, and is the best of pals. Here's to "Billie"! May she reap success to the fullest.

STEPHEN GUERRANT WRIGHT

"Steve" is one of the youngest members of the Senior Class. He sees the humorous side of everything, although he has taken his studies seriously and made good grades through these four years. He expects to study dentistry and we are certain he will be an ideal dentist.

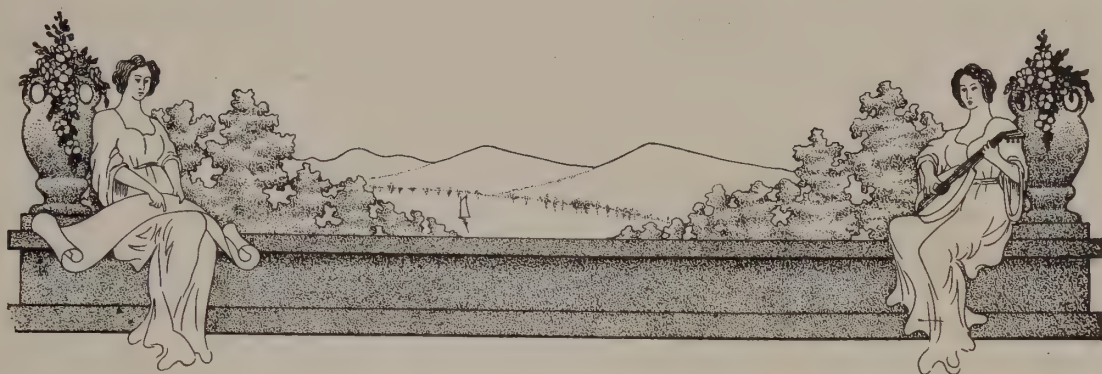

RICHARD GALLATINE HADEN YEATMAN

A splendid personality. You can feel his presence before you can see him. Just as you can hear his music on the drum and recognize his beat anywhere. Quite a Spanish student! Hi extends her best wishes to the future doctor!

GLADYS MARIE YOUNG

C. C.; H. E. C.; G. C.

Do we love her? Well, I reckon! Dignity, fun and common sense; that's Marie. Stenographer to our famous Mr. Falwell which, of course, is a high honor. While Marie's commercial training will come in handy we predict she will have more use for her cooking. Here's to you, Marie!

BACKWARD GLANCES

WHAT a task for one to even attempt the writing of the history of so renowned a class as the Class of '26. The present Senior Class was sprinkled with budding geniuses and athletes even in those far off Freshman days. Can you recall the sixty totally exempt students that Lee Junior sent over to old Hi?

Installed at old Jefferson High we were entitled "Rats," to be sure. Will we ever forget the relieved sigh we heaved when Mr. Parsons announced that there would be no "Rat Day" for us, because of our high scholastic record? Will we forget the "copper" medal that the Seniors presented to Marvin Saunders? Or the forbidden spiral of a fire escape that we so loved to slide down, or the big study hall with the sacred Senior row in the middle, or the creaking steps, or the old cafeteria? No, we will not forget them! Although we were newcomers to the school we immediately found ourselves a part of that sentimental glow of distress which hung like a veil over the old school. As we watched the new building rear its stately head we felt that, after all, the new is not always the best.

The fall of '24 marks our passing from the old High School into the stately halls of the new Jefferson High—Juniors. We will never forget that thrill of pride—the feeling of exultation—that sensation of acute joy we experienced, as we passed beneath the arched door of the new Hi, from which we were to be the second class to graduate. We immediately entered into all of the activities of school life, and many embryo athletes and intellectuals from our ranks won fame in both fields. The Class was organized for the first time. Junior Representatives were placed on the Junior World-News and the ACORN staffs, all of whom did good work. Then, too, there were Junior members in all of the organizations and clubs, boosting the new Hi as much as they had the old one.

The fall of '25 rolled around and we were Seniors. The Class was organized and officers were elected to steer us through the year of '25-'26. We started the work in earnest. During the spring term the Seniors of '25 had inaugurated the Coöperative System and Council. It is true we cannot claim the honor of having pioneered in the field of coöperation, but we can claim the honor of having followed up the good work of the Class of '25. The Coöperative Council started work in the fall of '25, equipped with a capable Senior president, a clearly defined constitution and last, but not least, the hearty support of the student body, led by the Seniors. The Big Brothers, the Boosters, the J. L. S., the M. W. L. S., the Hi-Y., and the Girls' Club, mainly composed of Seniors, have all done splendid work endeavoring to uphold high principles of work and play throughout. The Junior World-News and the ACORN, under the editorship of Seniors, have improved vastly in size and material. Although we cannot boast of the honors we have won on the field of sports, we feel that we would be doing our steady, splendid teams a great injustice if we did not mention their determined efforts.

Two things stand out in our Senior life as we glance back over those happy days—Senior Roll Call and the programs we gave every Tuesday. It was a great help to us to have Roll Call together. It set the Seniors apart from the other students and created class consciousness. It would have been perfect if it had not been for the "Rats" in the balcony. Their constant capering and gnawing was our only cross. Our weekly program was admirably planned—Monday and Wednesday, closed study hall. Thursday, Senior Day. Friday, Assembly Day, but Tuesday was the red letter day to us! Do you recall the peppy programs that were given? Each one seemed the best of all. They proved to be of great benefit because they furnished a medium of self-expression for every student. Hidden treasures were brought to light, many of which were really valuable. It was a priceless opportunity because it was utterly democratic and imparted to each Senior a feeling of personal responsibility.

And now we have come to the last lap of our journey as Seniors of Jefferson High with a feeling of great pride and yet of great sadness that we must, so soon, turn our backs on our dear old Alma Mater and "set our faces toward the shining sun"—the schools of higher learning. We feel that we have been in our new home such a short while—only two years—but we realize clearly what a wonderful advantage it has been to us to be able to study here even these few years. We appreciate the fact that our advancement in every branch of school life has been largely due to the magnificent equipment afforded us in the new school.

Dear Jefferson High, many have been dropped and many have been added to our original members, but wherever one of our flock may stray, may the blessedness of your influence guide him always.

—CLASS HISTORIAN, '26.

CARRY ON!

*When we recall the days of yore
When we were rats, and nothing more;
When all our steps were made in fear
Of bothering some teacher dear,
Or making some great Senior sore
By treading loudly on the floor—
Ah, then we laugh to think that we Seniors ourselves have come to be,
And as the Seniors of that day,
Have everything the self-same way.
The airs they wore as Seniors then
We have put on; although we ken,
That we're no more than rats grown wise,
And more important in OUR eyes.
"How is it, then, you walk the halls
Ignoring teacher's frantic bawls,
Strutting around with haughty mien,
Without a lesson in your bean?"
The rats may say. Ah, little ones,
That is our secret and, anon,
When you have also come to be
Exalted beings such as we,
You, too, will find that secret out,
And then you, too, will start to shout,
"I am a Senior! Give to me
Th' respect due what I've come to be!"
You will forget the fact that you
Were once an humble being, too;
For Senioritis gets us all,
In school and college, great and small.
'Tis a disease which makes us proud
And holds our heads above the clouds.
Yes, we are proud. But, little mice,
Just let us rave—we've paid the price.
We've studied, worried, fussed around,
Trying our best to gain some ground
Against spring fever, dates, and all
The things that tempt us from these halls.
We've done our best, and, now, my friends,
It's up to you to take the ends
Of all the threads we have begun
And "carry on" till the rope is spun.
Our time has passed; yours just begun;
Catch up the torch and cary on!*

SOMETIME LATER

THE prominence of the Class of '26 had spread over the whole world and members of the Class were receiving letters and offers from all the larger concerns. I had received letters offering me positions with concerns in Chicago, New York, San Francisco and many more of the world's largest cities. After studying each letter carefully, I decided I would accept the Chicago position; quite naturally, I attribute my success to being a member of the Class of '26.

While traveling about over the different parts of the world it is surprising the number of old friends you meet.

While in Chicago recently, I was strolling around when I saw a familiar figure striding ahead of me. Upon rushing up and touching his shoulder I found I was correct in my surmise—it was none other than "Bob" Lybrook, now a nationally famous lawyer and politician! We talked for a few minutes and he invited me to his hotel for dinner that evening. It's amazing what a start Ole Jefferson Hi gives a man! Bob's still holding down presidencies.

After dolling up in my glad rags I proceeded to the hotel and just as I was entering I heard a gay laugh behind me. On turning I found it to be Mr. and Mrs. John Michael (formerly Mary Hall). "Johnnie" is now president of the American Federation of Bakers and a very prominent business man. Mary was just as happy and carefree as in the days gone by. When I hummed "Bambalina" she thought she was in the Booster Musical Comedy folk dance and began to twirl. When I finally found Bob again we entered the dining room and, while eating, were entertained by Leslie Fowler, a famous concert pianist. Thistle Stanley also rendered several vocal selections and these were received with great applause.

After dinner we went to the Metropolitan Opera House to hear Virginia Showalter make her debut as a pianist. Needless to say it was successful as Virginia captured the hearts of her audience with her playing.

The next day I left for Los Angeles, California. On the way I stopped over in Kansas City to visit my old friend, Joe Laurence, now general manager of a large meat (bull) packing concern. I learned from Joe that it would be to my advantage to go to Hollywood instead of Los Angeles. Joe also took me to visit N. O. Wood, president of a large telephone company in that section.

Acting on Joe's suggestion I went to Hollywood and just as I was leaving the station I heard a beautiful voice say, "Well." I knew at once that it was Mildred Shafer and she was more beautiful than ever! I was surprised to learn that she was Richard Dix's leading lady and was very successful in their latest hit, "My Ideal." Mildred took me down to the Mack Sennet Studios and there I met a few of the famous bathing beauties. They included Martha Dold, "Pinky" Shoffner, Dorothy Glass and Rachael Michael. Anne Lunsford was business manager for this large corporation and it was through her efforts that they were so successful. Frances Mason was playing the lead in a large comedy production and was a wonderful comedian. Philip Ropp was art director and Arthur Wimmer was director. I had heard that Henry Cannaday lived here but on inquiring I found that he was pitching for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

While wandering around, seeing the sights, I ran into George Milliken, who owned and operated a large aeroplane factory. He was leaving for New York in one of his fastest planes and on his invitation I accepted and in almost no time I was in New York.

In New York I visited more studios and who do you suppose was the public idol? None other than "Bill" McAfee, handsomer and more dignified than ever. With his leading lady, Mae Kelly, he was sweeping the country with his popularity.

Meeting all these friends got my brain into a whirl, so I decided to find a drug store and snatch a coca-cola. I entered the first one I came to and after pushing my way through the vast crowd I finally reached the counter and there had a collapse because the man behind was none other than "Dick" Dalby, now a famous druggist in New York. He invited me to attend the "Follies" with him that evening. I had expected them to be the same old Follies but I received a happy surprise when I was taken into a magnificent new building which had been planned by the famous architect, Coy Foster.

The show was owned by Alva Chamberlayne, Lorenzo Jefferson and Yvan Ripley, and the orchestra was under the direction of Linwood Atkinson, a famous musician. When the curtain went up I almost died for the Queen of the Follies was none other than Gay Armistead and the court jester was Phyllis Childress. A commotion in the rear of the theater attracted my attention and who should enter but Lucille Graves, wife of a multi-millionaire. I understand that Lucille is on every Board of Philanthropy in New York.

The following morning I visited the famous Greenwich Village and there, to my great surprise, I found Sarah Mahaney in a magnificent studio working with her painting. I have learned since that this was her masterpiece. She had traveled all over Europe, studying under the great masters, before starting it.

At Columbia University I greeted Frances Wilson, dean of women, and Elizabeth, head of public speaking. I understand that a good many others that excelled at Jefferson High were a part of the University faculty but I decided to return another day and greet them, as a long distance call from Chicago reminded me I was a busy man.

—CLASS PROPHET, '26.

WHAT'LL WE DO?

(With apologies to Irving Berlin)

What'll we do when they are far away and we are blue; what'll we do? When Crip, 'n Flossie, 'n Anne, 'n Bob, 'n Johnnie, 'n—oh, everybody. "Remember the night" of the B. B. Minstrel? Of the Boosters' vaudeville?

Broadway itself couldn't boast of any more enthusiastic "first nights." Will we be totally devoid of athletics? of Big Brothers? of Boosters? of Coöperation? The prospect is a gloomy one, but wait—here's a ray of sunshine 'cause "Remember"—

"Always" as one senior class graduates another one takes its place and we, the Class of '27, Juniors now, hope that we will mean as much to Ole Hi and to the Class of '28 as you, Seniors, have meant to us.

—F., '27.

'28's CHALLENGE

We didn't quite know what so much of all we've been in the midst of was about at first, but, Ole Jefferson Hi, we've lived and learned as we've witnessed from our balcony seats in assemblies. The giving out of letters for athletic prowess, or a Senior stunt on Tuesday morning, we've secretly wondered if we, too, might be those proud performers. Yes, we are coming back and show 'em what's really in us—Just watch us, the Class of '28. "The spirit of Jefferson Hi has gotten us."

JUNIOR CLASS

SOPHOMORE CLASS

JEFFERSON HI

WE, in the full realization of the convenience and the facilities of our building, shall devote this space to a description of the departments thereof. Each and every department contributes something to a phase of our development and all, as a whole, make up what is known as Jefferson Hi.

Let us now make a tour of our building. But, as our time is limited, we can only consider the special departments and cannot consider it in detail.

First we shall take up the regular classrooms. All are airy and comfortable; all offer opportunity for real endeavor. We are impressed with their convenience.

Next we shall visit the science department. First the Chemistry Lecture room with a desk fitted up for demonstrations; and the Chemical Lab. fitted up with individual tables and apparatus. Next the Physical Lab.; in like manner have the details been considered here also. Then the Biology Labs. and classrooms combined. Nothing is wanting to complete their efficiency.

On this same floor we see the Latin Lab. which contains the work of the Latin students. Here we see a model of Cæsar's bridge and various other things of interest. The Latin Bulletin Board presents another phase of their work—showing the modern use of Latin and Mythology in the everyday world.

From here let us go to the Commercial Department. One of these rooms is fitted up with the best typewriters and, in this room, efficiency in typography is held high.

Next to this room there is the Mechanical Drawing room with special raised desks.

Going around to the other side of the hall we see the rooms of the Home Economics Department and those of Sewing and Cooking; both admirably suited for the work done in them. The cafeteria is also on this floor, with tables and equipment for keeping the food warm. Eating here is made twice as pleasant.

Now we come to two very important departments—for the boys—the Manual Training and the Printing. The Manual Training room offers an unlimited opportunity for experimentation and skill. The Printing Department contains a printing press and other useful equipment.

And now, walking our way to the upper hall again, we come to the lovely gym where it is a delight to use the apparatus and develop physical prowess.

Directly in front of the gym is the big and beautiful auditorium where inspiring assemblies are held. The folding doors between the two open on the stage. On this stage much poise is gained and training in the field of dramatics and public speaking. Such an auditorium is an inspiration in itself.

Thus we have, in brief, made a tour of Jefferson Hi, but were we to go through it again we would find many more things of interest. We have missed them but they cannot be done without.

FRIENDSHIP

PAUL MORET was happy and he had a right to be. He and his betrothed, Marie Dupre, were on their way to Quebec to be married. And, best of all, his dearest friend, Pierre La Grange, was with them, helping to break trail to civilization and the priest.

Paul sang snatches of song as he ran behind the dog sled or broke trail ahead. The only thing which had marred his happiness was the white which had appeared twice on Marie's pretty face since morning. Each time the two men had frantically rubbed away the frost with snow, the painful but necessary remedy for frost-bite.

All through the day they had heard the wolves howling upon their trail. The beasts were famished because of the extraordinarily intense cold of that long winter which had driven the smaller animals away.

Indians had come into forts with horrible tales of broken, frozen bones found near isolated trappers' cabins—the remains of a grisly banquet left by the grey terror of the north—the great timber-wolf.

Paul grew silent as he heard the wolves howl on their back trail. Sometimes the sound was near and sometimes far but somehow it seemed to draw always closer as night drew on.

They still felt no fear, because they knew they should be in Quebec long before nightfall. They both knew the trail, having been over it a thousand times, but the heavy snow had left deep drifts, deceptive to both memory and feet.

The trail became less and less familiar as the afternoon passed and night drew on. Paul knew that they must have taken the wrong fork in the trail.

There were two roads branching off the main trail. One led straight as an arrow to Quebec and the other wound its way to the cabin of an old wood-cutter.

As the night began to fall Paul realized they were on the old road, forty miles from Quebec and ten from the old cabin. The wolves were pressing them now—no time to turn back. Paul cursed himself for his stupidity in losing the way. Pierre tried to cheer him but in his heart lay a cold dread—the fear of death. He knew that they could never make the cabin unless—unless something held back the wolves.

He thought of Paul, his friend, his pal since childhood, how they had played and fought, the sacrifices each had made for the other. He thought of Celeste, the sweetheart who had died, nothing but loneliness in life for him now. He thought of Marie and Paul, how happy they would be when they reached Quebec. The future—for Paul, everything; for himself, nothing.

Did he love his friend enough to die for him? If he did it meant safety and happiness for Paul and Marie; if not, their death and blighted happiness.

By the side of an old trail there is a grave with a little wooden cross. On the cross is carved, "Pierre La Grange, who died for his friend." —T. J. BURKE.

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

WE, the Senior Class of 1926, being of sound mind (though rather delapidated), do proclaim this to be our last will and testament. As to our estate which we possess do we dispose of as follows:

Bob Lybrook wills his Spanish books to Miss Jones—trusting that their presence will cause her to remember his wisdom on the subject.

Sarah Mahaney requests that the inscription of a dollar mark be placed on her tombstone to remind the world that she was a martyr to the cause of collecting "dues."

Frances Wilson says that whenever she sees an oak she will always think of the ACORNS, especially those of '26.

Henry Headen wills the school a megaphone which he has christened "Pep." The donor hopes it will be used by future generations!

Philip Ropp intends to devote his life to the study of the different varieties of fish—his main purpose is to discover the gold in goldfish.

According to Patsy Kern's will, the school will receive a handsome joke book. No brains, but—

Harry Stone has reflected a great deal of "color" at Hi, and is planning a very "bright" future.

Bert Keyser announced that since he has acquired such a vast knowledge of Latin he will go into business there when school is out.

When asked what parting words she intended to leave at Hi, Elizabeth Wilson replied, "So's your ole man!"

Lorenzo Jefferson wills his pen name "Ethudicius" to next year's Junior World-News staff. May they be inspired as he "used to was."

Anne Lunsford bids farewell with—

"A fond good-by for Jefferson High—
May the Girls' Club, fine and true,
Always rule—as women do."

Cyril Morgan says he hopes Miss Board will sometime become reconciled to chewing gum and other peculiarities at Hi.

Dorothy Glass is quite distressed. She can't figure out how the Junior World-News staff will survive without "Selah" next year.

Carl Richards leaves this bit of advice:

Flunk, and the School flunks with you—
Study, and you pass alone.

Billy Stump declares that the worst thing about leaving school is that you don't have your teachers to argue with.

Frank Cooper has been heard to remark that "knowledge is power and ignorance is zero."

As the poet says, "In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love," which has been noted at Hi. Also, the fancies of many of our Seniors turn beyond Commencement to Summer School.

SUPPLEMENT—TO THE FACULTY

To Miss Sully Hayward we leave a duck farm near Hollins College where she may retire after a strenuous day's work and get her "ducks in a row."

To Miss Rath we leave a little tin trumpet with which she may arouse from dreamland any member of the Junior World-News staff who sleeps on the job.

To Miss Lovelace, due to her love of horses, we leave a virgil pony.

To our hero, Mr. Falwell, we leave a mustache cup in remembrance of his little departed pet.

We hereby declare that Miss Suthers shall be sole executrix and no one shall deprive her of her right.

Taken under our hand, signed and sealed, this, the EIGHTEENTH day of MAY, 1926.

—THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1926.

AMBITION

There're many things we ought to do
And those we may transgress;
But we will never err from our
Pursuit of happiness.

Now, many find their long-sought goal
In their pursuit of pleasure.
The greatest joy they have in life—
Accumulating treasure.

And some have still another joy,
Short-lived—but so entrancing,
They're spending all their high school days
In "cutting" and in dancing.

Oh ye, who want the worth-while gifts
That give us true elation,
You soon will climb another rung,
And that—your graduation!

We must in education rise,
And we must gain in knowledge,
So when we leave ole Jefferson Hi,
Let's start again in college.

—FRANCES STROTHER HENRY, '26.

GYPSY LOVE

IT was twilight. In the gypsy camp the women were busy about the camp fire and the men, tired from their day's hunt, sat around smoking their pipes and exchanging bits of news picked up here and there. The little gypsy children, exhausted from play, lay in the cool grass watching the birds as they flew about in search of their supper.

All was peaceful and calm, so it seemed, but in the heart of one of the handsome young gypsy men there was sorrow and anger, mixed with a determination for revenge. That day Juan had asked Maria, the pretty daughter of the chief, to marry him and she had refused because Paublo, the villainous gypsy who had given up his roving life and then had come back to it, wanted her to marry him. Juan knew that Maria did not love Paublo, but he had money to offer her and the pretty dark-eyed gypsy girl loved the jingle of gold.

How could he win her back? He had no money as had Paublo. He had no education and no fine manners, as Paublo thought he had. No, he must try to win her by love alone. Sighing deeply, he arose from his position on the ground where he had been watching the busy women and went inside his tent. He did not come out again, even for supper.

"Where is Juan?" some one asked.

"Oh, I guess he's in his tent sulking," laughed the hard-hearted Maria.

Yes, he was in his tent, but it was not temper that kept him there. When Maria's words reached him, borne on the clear air, the tears sprang into his eyes and a faint resolve took deep root in his heart.

Hastily brushing the tell-tale tears from his eyes he stalked from his tent and walked straight to the long table under the trees where the merry band was having supper. Touching Paublo on the shoulder he silently but forcefully bade him come with him. Paublo obeyed and they both left the camp.

The incident was forgotten as the meal progressed and the two gypsies were forgotten and not even missed from the circle around the camp fire. Even Maria forgot them as she played and flirted.

But what was happening in the woods not so far from camp? There the gypsy rivals were having their little party. After an angry discussion Juan made a proposition. Paublo was asked to choose. Would he rather fight for the girl they both loved or would he leave the place and give Juan every chance of winning Maria back? Paublo chose the latter, for he was a coward, and from that time was seen no more in the camps of the gypsies.

All was still and quiet in the gypsy camp when a lone figure crept into the clearing. He walked straight to his tent, entered, took up his guitar and stepped out again into the moonlight.

He stood a moment deliberating. Then he moved quietly past the tents until he came to the leader's tent. Here he paused. All was peaceful. He could even hear the breathing of the quiet sleepers. But wait—there was one uneven break. What was that? It sounded like a sob. Could Maria be crying for him? Immediately her preference for Paublo was forgotten by Juan. He dropped on his knee and, lightly touching his guitar, he began to sing in his mellow gypsy voice:

“Come, my love, the stars are shining,
Time is flying, love is sighing.”

Immediately a figure appeared at the tent door. Juan dropped his guitar and leaped forward. Maria was in his arms; his at last. No word was spoken; no word was needed.

The next day a beautiful gypsy wedding ceremony was performed. The lovers joined hands under the solemn giants of the forest, pledging themselves together forever and ever.

—CONSTANCE E. CHESNEY, '26.

A MESSAGE OF FAREWELL

Oh ye lockers, with numerous cherished secrets confided to you. You'll be faithful in that trust, as you have been in safely keeping our coats and more material things.

Oh ye classrooms, how many times have we crossed thy thresholds with trembling fear, but yet—when we think of you, one's throat becomes unaccountably choked.

FAREWELL!

Oh ye well-beloved faculty, our dearest friends and worst enemies, we take leave of you bravely, but, me thinks, one even loves his most despicable teacher, when one graduates.

Oh Jefferson Hi, though we say farewell now, may we come back to thy halls, better for having come in contact with you?

May every one love you as we do.

CONSTITUTION OF THE JEFFERSON HIGH SCHOOL OF ROANOKE, VIRGINIA

[Printed for the benefit of those who do not have a copy of the Constitution]

PREAMBLE

WE, the students of the Jefferson High School, of Roanoke, Virginia, in order to form better men and women, insure school spirit, promote the general welfare of the school, and of each individual pupil, and secure the blessings of coöperation to ourselves and to those following us, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the Jefferson High School, of Roanoke, Virginia.

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1. All legislative powers herein granted shall be vested in the Coöperative Council of Jefferson High School, which shall consist of a representative of high standing from the faculty and of representatives from each class and organization of prominence in the School, who shall be duly elected each year by the said classes and organizations.

SECTION 2. The Coöperative Council shall have the power to establish a department of traffic in the corridors, a department for fire, a department of orderlies in the study and assembly halls and cafeteria.

SECTION 3. Each member of the Council shall have the power to uphold and maintain Law and Order anywhere within or in the vicinity of the School.

SECTION 4. Each of the departments in Section 2 shall have a secretary in whom shall be the powers of president for that respective department only and who shall have his or her power derived from, and with the consent of, the president of the Council and two-thirds of the Council present at the time of the vote.

ARTICLE II.

SECTION 1. The executive power shall be vested in a president of the Coöperative Council who shall be duly elected each year by the members of the Coöperative Council only.

SECTION 2. The president of the Council shall be president and head of all departments established by the Council. He or she may demand, in writing, the opinion of the principal officer in each department upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices and the president shall have power, with the consent and opinion of the principal of the school, to pardon any offence against the school, except in the case of impeachment.

SECTION 3. The president shall have the power to appoint the heads of any department established by the Council, provided two-thirds of the members of the Council present at the time of the appointment, which shall be made during any session of the Council, concur.

SECTION 4. The president shall, from time to time, give to the Council information regarding the progress of each department, and to recommend for their consideration such measures as he or she shall judge necessary and expedient; he or she may, on extraordinary occasions, convene the Council; he or she shall receive all petitions from the students or faculty and give them the utmost consideration, and take whatever steps necessary that are within his or her power.

SECTION 5. The president, vice president and all civil officers of the school and Council shall be removed from office on impeachment for misdemeanors and other high crimes.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1. The judicial power of the school shall be vested in the Coöperative Council, having the principal as Chief Justice and all of the Council, except two, as Advisory Associate Justices. From the two excluded as Associate Justices, one shall be appointed Attorney-General and the other his assistant.

SECTION 2. The judicial power shall extend in all cases of misdemeanor, felony, cheating, and arguments or misunderstandings arising over this Constitution. The Attorney-General shall act as prosecuting attorney in all cases of felony, misdemeanor and cheating.

SECTION 3. The decision or verdict of the Council shall be decided by the Chief justice only, and any attempt at coercion or intimidation shall be held as contempt of court and shall be punished accordingly.

SECTION 4. All decisions can be appealed only to the School Board but new trials may be demanded from the Council.

SECTION 5. Any person charged with felony, misdemeanor, or cheating may be defended by any person within the school.

ARTICLE IV.

SECTION 1. The Council, whenever it may deem it necessary, shall propose an amendment to this Constitution which can be made an amendment only by a two-thirds vote of the entire body; or if two-thirds of the classes and organizations of the school demand an amendment, the said amendment shall be seriously considered by the Council and may be made an amendment by a majority vote.

ARTICLE V.

SECTION 1. The Council cannot prohibit the freedom of speech or press, nor shall it be influenced by religious views.

ARTICLE VI.

SECTION 1. The Coöperative Council shall meet as often as they deem it necessary. Being at least once a month.

SECTION 2. The Coöperative Council shall be vested with full authority and power to enact and carry out all articles herein.

CLUBS

BOOSTER CLUB

THE Boosters of Jefferson Hi really need no introduction. They've made themselves felt for three years and have played no small part in Ole Hi's recent development. In a school of thirteen hundred students, where activities are many and varied, the necessity for supporting and boosting these various enterprises is a most important one. Such a work has been undertaken and carried through by the Booster Club of J. H. S. most creditably and effectively. The Booster Club is a group of Jefferson's best picked girls, elected on their all-round ability to comprehend and get things over. The Club has been a factor in the School since 1923, and each year has done a bigger and more important work.

Its president is Martha Dold and it is needless to say that "Crip" has carried us through a most successful year. But still, how could the Club have done without its faculty advisor, Miss Sully Hayward?

BIG BROTHER CLUB

THE Big Brother Club is composed of twenty-five of High School's popular boys. A member of the Club is chosen by his popularity, school spirit, and willingness to work. The aim of the Big Brother Club is, first, to support and boost all High School activities. The other purpose is to serve as a social club for the members.

GIRLS' CLUB

THE Girls' Club was organized about ten years ago, and ever since has been one of the foremost clubs at Hi. This Club is a branch of the Y. W. C. A., with a membership of about two hundred girls. The program for this year has been a good one. There has been a Japanese Tea and Sale; and many suppers and banquets—including the Mother-Daughter banquet and the Teachers banquet.

With Miss Mary Mason as the Girl Reserve Secretary to lead the Club, and Miss Grace Harnsberger as Faculty Advisor, Miss Mary Jane Suthers as Program Advisor, Miss Mary Fawcett as Social Advisor, Miss Virginia Caldwell as World Fellowship Advisor, Miss E. Moore as Membership Advisor, Miss Nellie Smithey as Service Advisor, Miss H. Daniels as Decoration Chairman and Mrs. A. S. Petty as General Social Chairman, the Club is bound to rise until it will be unexcelled.

JUNIOR WORLD-NEWS STAFF

The Junior World-News

(Published by the Students of Jefferson Senior High School)

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, MAY 18, 1926

King Malon

The JUNIOR WORLD-NEWS came into being on October 28, 1921, with Robert Loeb as Editor-in-Chief and Miss Maude Huff, Faculty Advisor. The primary reasons for publishing this school paper were: 1. To let the public know of Hi's activities. 2. To create a stronger school spirit. 3. To give to the Student Body an interesting and instructive school paper. 4. To teach interested students some of the fundamentals of newspaper work.

DOROTHY GLASS
Editor-in-Chief
ALVA CHAMBERLAYNE
Assistant Editor
GERTRUDE R. RATH
Faculty Advisor

Reporters—Elizabeth Wilson, Lucille Graves, Angie Turner, Elizabeth Malone, Lorenzo Jefferson, Philip Ropp, Shields Johnson, Mildred Shafer, Mary Raleigh, Pauline Frantz.

During the following years
William Parker, Evelyn Du-

laney and Ellen Chamberlayne were Editors, and each year, more and more, we came to realize its value and to appreciate it as a true asset to the school.

This year, much of the "lighter vein" was cut out of the paper and it was converted into a "news" paper, on a higher plane, but with not as much individuality as formerly.

Shields Johnson and Elizabeth Wilson were absent at the time the picture was taken and so are not represented in it.

MARTHA WASHINGTON LITERARY SOCIETY

THE importance of the part which the Martha Washington Literary Society plays in the life of Jefferson Hi can hardly be over-estimated. Its purpose has been to develop the girls by giving them self-confidence and training in the arts of debating, public speaking and reading.

The Society is composed of a group of girls intensely interested in all literary activities and is a democratic organization. The stimulus for its work has been the literary meet held annually at Charlottesville. All during this past year the members have been working toward this goal, although much fun and interesting times have been had as well. By contests and eliminations a team has been chosen to take part in these meets. They, with the boys' team, will represent Jefferson Hi in a true way.

The girls in the past year have been loyal to the Society and to the adviser, Mrs. Burt, who has guided them. They have proved their love for M. W. L. S. and have done excellent work. The officers who have led the Society through this year are as follows:

COÖPERATIVE COUNCIL

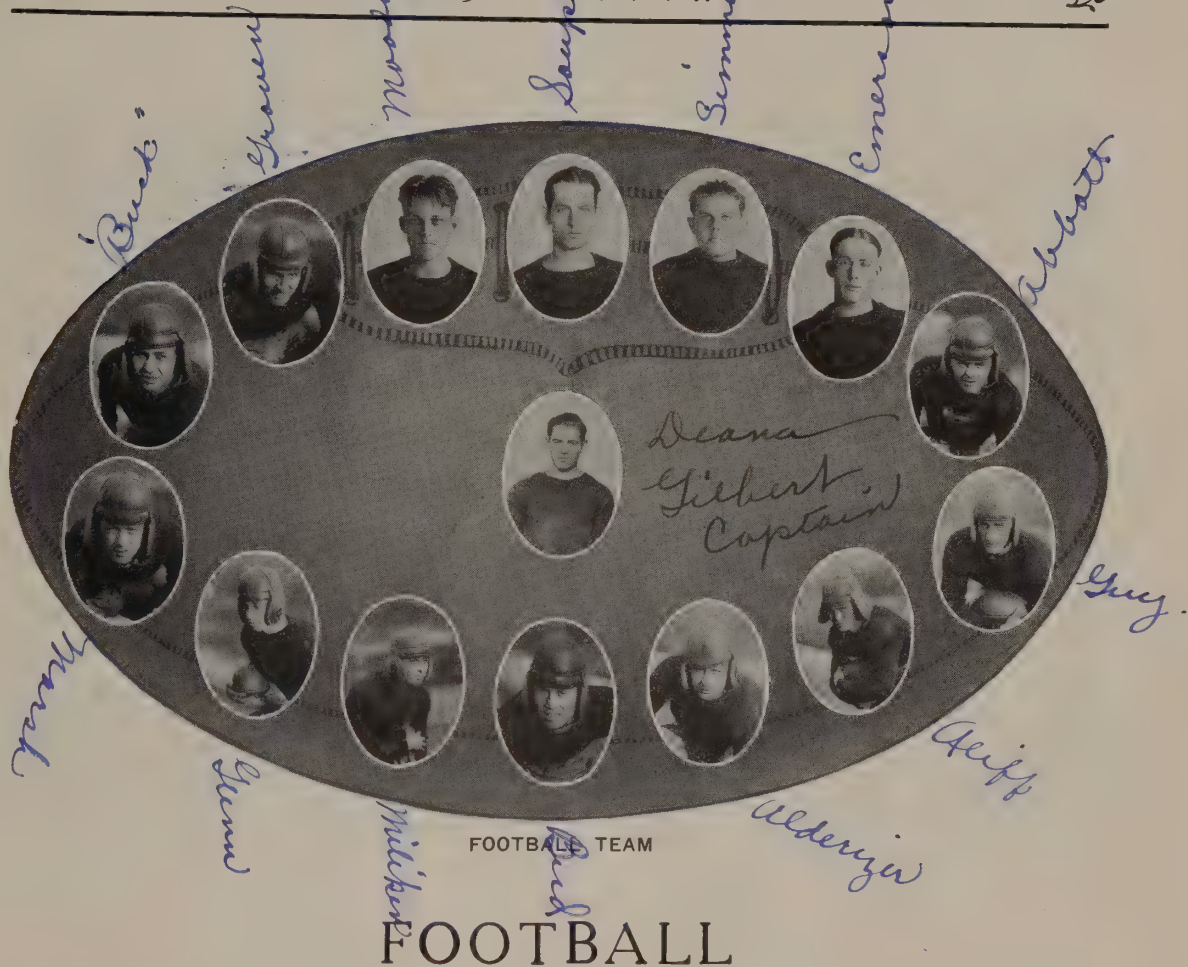

COMMENCING work with the highest ideals, the Coöperative Council fully opened its season with an assembly, late in the fall, at which the president, David Weinstein, pleaded for support and coöperation from the student body and from the faculty. Campaigns of various kinds for the good of the School were introduced by the vice president, Virginia Peters. Mr. Morris Masinter administered the oath of coöperation to the student body at which time this pledge was practically unanimously adopted. During the whole of the school year the Council endeavored to make Jefferson Hi the best school in the State. Cases of various sorts were tried and all offenders were dealt with justly. If criticism is in order, the Council should not be criticised; if praise, it should not be lauded; for, after all, success or failure was mainly in the hands of each individual.

FOR the first time in four years Jefferson Hi lost a chance at the State football title when Lynchburg Hi nosed out a 3 to 0 victory after playing one 0 to 0 tie game. "Pasco" Gettle, the new coach of this year, whipped a practically new team into shape and it won its first game, 11 to 0, against R. M. A., at Bedford.

The second game proved too much for the "Magicians" and they lost to the "Frosh" of W. & L., 33 to 0. The following week the "Big Red Team" defeated the Junior Varsity of Bluefield College, 26 to 0. The next Saturday Ole Hi lost again, after out-playing the "Baby Squadron" from V. M. I., led by Albert Barnes, Ole Hi's former star. The final score was 7 to 0, V. M. I. The next game was won easily from Danville Hi to the tune of 32 to 6.

The following boys received the regulation "J": Moody, end; Wimmer, tackle and center; Abbott, guard; Aliff, center; Carter, guard; Hill, tackle; Simmons, tackle; Pendleton, end; Marsh, end; Aldhizer, tackle; Gilbert (Captain), quarter-back; Milliken, half-back; Lemon, half-back; Taylor, full-back; Humphries, half-back; and Keyser, manager.

BOYS' BASKET BALL

STARTING out without a letter-man back, the Jefferson Hi quintet had a very hard season. But, considering its lack of experience on the basket ball court, it made a very good try and tried to redeem itself by winning the last three games, two of which were played on foreign courts. Coach "Joe" Engleby should be congratulated for his excellent coaching of this green and untried team. It was with his help only that the local boys showed up so well at the last. Pendleton (Captain), Taylor, Settle, Hurt, Harne, Engleby and Marsh (Manager), received letters.

GIRLS' BASKET BALL

ON account of inter-class competition during November, practice for a varsity basket ball team did not start until the latter part of December. Even then a practically new team had to be formed, as only "Flossie" and "Crip" returned from last year's varsity, but under Miss Rath's able coaching, a team was turned out that Hi was exceedingly proud of; a team that won seven of the eight games played, that one being lost by only two points. And, although the girls were not in the league, much interest was shown at the games by the loyal supporters of Hi.

Vaughan, Dold, Shafer, Aldhizer, Aguly, Day, Graves and Casserly were awarded a "J."

TRACK TEAM

TRACK

THE Track Team, thus far, has had a very successful season. Saturday, April 3d, the team met V. P. I. freshmen, being defeated only after a game struggle. The following Saturday the team clashed with W. & L. freshmen. After a spectacular battle W. & L. emerged the victor by a few points. The rest of the schedule includes two triangular meets with V. M. I. and U. of Va. freshmen; R. M. A. and Lynchburg and the championship meet at Charlottesville. The J. H. S. Track Team has some very promising material this year and hopes to win the championship. The team has been materially aided by the coaching of Albert A. Stone, Jr., former Mercersburg Academy and University of Virginia star track athlete and a member of a National Championship Relay Team; and Norton Stone, former Cornell star hurdler, once considered America's best hurdler.

The team hopes to end its season successfully this year, having always stood in the first division at the Championship meets.

BASEBALL TEAM

BASEBALL

THE baseball season started off with a bang this year and when the call for candidates was issued it brought out a human flood. With the help of the last year men, "Sap" Griffin, the stellar coach, was able to whip together a Magician nine that downed Rocky Mount Hi with a 24 to 9 victory, with only two weeks practice. The following Friday the local Hi boys vanquished R.-M. A., 4 to 3, after a twelve-inning battle. The next day the "Big Red Team" bit off more than it could chew and was defeated by the Frosh team of V. P. I., 15 to 5.

V. M. I. Frosh, W. & L., Greenbriar, S. M. A., Lynchburg Hi and Danville Hi are still on the schedule to be met by the local boys. The pitching end is being upheld by "Bunny" Mays, "Pinkey" Crockett and Willard Oakley, while White and Schilling are showing up well behind the bat. The initial bag is held down by A. Wimmer, with Mastin and Laughorne on the second plate and hot corner, respectively. Humphries, the star short-stop, is still on duty. Taylor, Lemon and Pendleton are in the outfield waiting to catch any stray balls that may come out their way.

Luck to "OLD HI"

- ¶ Between Jefferson High School and this Company there exists a close bond of sympathy.
- ¶ Not so very long ago, as years seem, we were among you as boys ourselves—in the classroom, on the diamond, the football field or cinder track—striving, as you are, to lift the standards to the top.
- ¶ And now we are still with you.
- ¶ When your publication "gets across big" or when your team is crowned with a championship—we are just as keen about it as you—because we are WITH you.
- ¶ Again we say "Luck to 'OLD HI'."
